PSALM 85

We, The Together in Christ Collaborative of St. Ann and St. John the Evangelist, welcome and engage all ages to become the disciples that Jesus is calling all of us to be. United by faith and in the Celebration of the Mass, we embrace the call of Jesus to live our mission to "Go forth and make disciples." Through evangelization, education, and by the empowerment of the Holy Spirit, we will grow together as One Body of Christ.

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Oftentimes when we think of God, we think of the grandeur of the Almighty, the One who created everything out of nothing, the One who is before all time but who is with us in time. We think of a God who took human form, who was both human and divine (never losing a bit of either “nature” at any point in time). It is these thoughts which we bring forth when hearing of encounters such as the one in today’s gospel. Jesus, in today’s gospel, walks on the water, invites Peter to do the same, rescues Peter when he doubts and calms the sea. In all of this, we see the divinity of Christ, we see the immensity of God.

The challenge with all of this, however, is that we often fail to see the humanity of Christ, the fact that God is “one with us”. We miss, perhaps, the beginning of the gospel when Jesus goes off by Himself to pray. Jesus often felt the need to go off to deserted places to pray, rest and “recharge”. In these moments, the humanity of Jesus is there for us to see. More often than not, the “larger” moments of Jesus’ public ministry were preceded by private moments of prayer and refreshment. Isn’t this the case with us, that we take a little time of reflection before undertaking a large task? We evaluate, assess and calculate before taking on something which will change our lives (hopefully for the better).

This is the case with Elijah in the first reading. Elijah, a prophet, was about to have an encounter with God and took shelter in a cave. If one was to speculate, I think it could be safely said that Elijah did so to reflect on what was about to happen. What did happen, however, was most interesting. First came a might wind – but God was not there. Next came an earthquake – but God was not to be found there, either. Next, Elijah encountered a fire – but God was absent from this phenomenon as well. Finally, there was a tiny whispering sound - which is where God was.

How often in our lives do we go searching for God in great and grand events, only to be mystified that He isn’t apparent in these times (n.b. God is there, but He may not want us to find Him there)? We forget that God is in all things, even the small, seemingly insignificant, ones. Let us never waste an opportunity, even a small one, to seek out God. Let us, further, not be surprised when God is found in these small events. It happened for/to Elijah – it can happen for/to us!

Have a Blessed Week,
Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

As you read this, I find myself in the midst of God's creation. I am currently spending my 25th summer on the shores of Upper Suncook Lake in the small New Hampshire hamlet of Gilmanton Iron Works. Camp Fatima (and its "sister Camp", Camp Bernadette), offers young people an opportunity for a traditional camp experience. On this third week of August, after "regular season" has ended, Camp Fatima welcomes approximately 150 special needs young people, or "Exceptional Citizens" as we call them here in this Sacred space.

St. Francis no doubt would be pleased that not only are young people are afforded an opportunity to bask in the glow of God's love in nature, but also that this week is set aside for "God's special children" who are mentally and physically challenged. St. Francis strove to see God in all people, but especially the poor, the disenfranchised, the marginalized. St. Francis had a particular affinity for those who society might see as "less than". This was not always the case, as we know that Francis would do all he could to avoid the "discomfort" of encountering such folks. It was when he was on the road and encountered the leper (one of those "less than" as seen by society) that this all changed.

I have been coming up to camp for 25 summers, and at first I didn't know what to expect. I hadn't really had a full-on experience with those with special needs, save for the occasional encounter in the parish that I might have had, and while I didn't avoid them (as Francis might have before his encounter with the leper) I didn't go out of my way to work with them. Camp Fatima EC (Exceptional Citizens) Week changed all that, for the better! It has been my experience that Camp has been one of the most profound experiences of my priestly ministry. It has aided me in see God in creation, as well as seeing God in the created beings that we are, that our "exceptional citizens" are at Camp.

I pray that as I experience this week (once again, and anew), God may help you to see Him in the small and quiet moments of your day. Like Elijah in our first reading, often times God can be seen not in the grand moments but in the quiet "whispers" of the day. May our Good God give you such experiences today and every day, and may God bless you richly in your life as you seek Him.

Pax et Bonum,

Fr. Paul, OFS

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Being Human is to Doubt

Humans doubt. It's what we do. We doubt ourselves and we doubt others.

Before any of us say anything about Peter's doubting the words of Jesus that told him he could get out of his boat and walk on water, we need to get real with ourselves: How would I respond in the same situation? I remember when I was child taking swimming lessons. One day I simply tightened up my muscles and sank. The lifeguard pulled me up and asked what happened. I said I did not know. The truth is that I was sinking under the weight of my own doubt. I did not believe I could do what clearly, I was told I could. That was only in five feet of water in a pool! Now that I'm older, I can look back and laugh. But an adult, the swimming pool is life, and I would be lying if I said that there are no longer times I find myself sinking due to new doubts.

Much of our doubt comes about because of a lack of trust in God. We place our trust in material things, wealth, or imperfect people instead of the One who is worthy of our trust 100 percent of the time. Our stewardship is often hampered by our doubt that God will provide all that we need. If I give more, I may not have enough to survive! When we place all our trust in God, not only do we find that we have been given all we need – our doubt that cause us to sink in the pool of life fades away. We don't suddenly become perfect in our trust, and there will be times when we find ourselves with concerns again. However, it is in those moments we find that He is still there, speaking the words we need to hear: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."
