NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

I can always remember the Feast of the Epiphany, mainly due to the traditions we held in our household. We would set up the crèche on Christmas Eve (minus the Baby Jesus, of course!), placing Baby Jesus in the manger when we returned home from Midnight Mass. On Christmas Day, the Magi would make their appearance, but not at the manger – they would be placed on the top of the refrigerator! Over the next week or so, they would slowly be moved (in successive weeks) from the fridge, to the back of the oil burner, to the back of the couch (or china cabinet), to the windowsill, and finally into the manger scene. This, of course, gave each of the five children a chance to “relocate” the Magi. The Magi were three in number (as in the song “We Three Kings”); this, we later came to find out, was probably not entirely accurate. We came to find, through investigation, that there were as many as a dozen “magi”, which is, not coincidentally, related to our modern word, “magic”. The Magi were a class of palace workers who were part magician, part alchemist, part astrologer (thus their knowledge of, and reliance on, stars for guidance). They were “jacks of all trade” (although “jacks” probably isn’t completely accurate either, as there may have been some women in their company), relied on by the king (such as Herod) for guidance and direction for many things.

Today our Church celebrates the Feast of Epiphany. Growing up, I always understood this to be the “end of the Christmas Season”. This makes sense for many reasons: it speaks of God’s manifestation to humanity in Christ, it highlights the appearance of the Magi, and it is a bit of a “birthday party” for Jesus. How wrong I was! The Christmas Season actually/officially ends with next week’s Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. This makes infinitely more sense! After all, our entrance into the Church isn’t marked by our birth but by our baptism. The Baptism of Jesus, about which we will read next week, begins Jesus’ entrance into “public” ministry. It is His “coming out party” as it were.

Now back to today’s feast. The Feast of the Epiphany, a word which has its roots in the Greek word “epiphaneia”, which means “manifestation”, marks and celebrates the appearance of the Magi upon the scene of Jesus’ birth in Bethlehem. In the classic Greek it was used to mark the appearance of gods. Of course, in our monotheistic tradition, this is adapted to mark the appearance of the One True God in the Person of Jesus Christ. The first reference in Christian literature to the Epiphany would be in the 4th century, which speaks of Jesus’ “birth, that is, His Epiphany” by St. Epiphanius of Salamis in his work “Panarion” (written in 361). It was celebrated on January 6th for the longest time (as is this year’s feast), and currently is celebrated on the Sunday between January 2nd and 8th (thus the short “down time” this year between Christmas and Epiphany).

The Feast of the Epiphany gives us an opportunity for a “breather” between Christmas and the Baptism of the Lord. May we, like the Magi, come to the manger and reflect on the good things God has provided for us – namely, Christ the Lord.

Have a (Continued) Blessed Christmas Season,

Fr. Paul

NEW YEAR

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of the Epiphany of the Lord. The Feast of the Epiphany, a word which has its roots in the Greek word “epiphaneia”, which means “manifestation”, marks and celebrates the appearance of the Magi upon the scene of Jesus’ birth in Bethlehem. It can certainly be said that throughout the life and ministry of St. Francis of Assisi, Christ manifested Himself many times. I will take a look at two of those times.

One of the first manifestations of Christ for St. Francis was in the Church of San Damiano in Assisi. When Francis was looking for direction and purpose in his newfound life, he gazed upon the Cross of Christ in this little chapel and was told by Christ to “rebuild my house”. At first, as might be anyone’s natural inclination, Francis thought Christ was speaking of the actual, physical structure of the Church of San Damiano, which was in obvious need of repair. As Francis started this rebuilding, he had an “epiphany” himself, when he realized that Christ was speaking of a “spiritual rebuilding” of the Church (Universal), not the structure of the Chapel in Assisi. This “rebuilding” would take many years, most of Francis’ time of ministry really, and much effort. The Church of Francis’ time was in disrepair, rife with scandal and upheaval. Francis worked tirelessly to fulfill Christ’s call for “repair”, responding to this particular “epiphany” made by Christ to Francis.

Another “epiphany” was Francis’ encounter with the leper. In embracing the leper, St. Francis experienced a singular moment of grace. That act of mercy should encourage us all. St. Francis had a fear and abhorrence of lepers. One day, however, he met a man afflicted with leprosy while riding his horse near Assisi. Though the sight of the leper filled him with horror and disgust, Francis got off his horse and kissed the leper. Then the leper put out his hand, hoping to receive something. Out of compassion, Francis gave money to the leper. But when Francis mounted his horse again and looked all around, he could not see the leper anywhere. It dawned on him that it was Jesus whom he had just kissed. Francis believed in divine synchronicity and saw it as essential in his spiritual life. Surely it was synchronous that Francis showed up at the church of San Damiano and then listened to the guidance he received. No doubt it was synchronous for Francis to notice a leper as he traveled the roads of Umbria. Mortified and disgusted by leprosy, Francis may have wished to pass by on the other side of the road. But God’s still, small voice told him to stop, reach out, and embrace the man with leprosy. Both the man with leprosy and Francis were transformed in that moment.

May we experience similar “epiphanies” as St. Francis did. May this Feast of the Epiphany bring about in us a transformation, moving from self-centeredness to Christ-centeredness. May we, like St. Francis, be open to God prompting us to discover who is for us, for the Church, and for the world.

Pax et Bonum,

Fr. Paul, OFS

New Years Reflection and Prayer

As the old year ends and a new one begins, take time.

Time to remember the struggles you faced,
And mistakes you might have made,
And maybe even loved ones you lost.

In every year, you experience heartache.
This one was no different.

And in remembering, find a seed of hope hidden in yesterday.

Remember how you’ve been blessed.
Relive when you found unexpected strength.
Recall where you saw God’s great Spirit at work.
And know his mercy kept you going all this time.

Recognize his mercy. Ask for his peace.

The peace that pours out every moment of every day
from the wounds of Christ.

Prepare us Lord for the New Year.
Lift us up and place in our hearts,
A renewed desire to know and worship you more.
Give us your abundant grace.
Shower us with your healing love.

May your eternal Kingdom reign in our hearts and our lives. May the New Year show us once again your eternal mercy and glory.

And let us sing your praises with great joy.

In Jesus name, Amen.

Epiphany of the Lord

The song "We Three Kings" details the gifts of the Magi, but do you know what you're singing? "Born a king on Bethlehem's plan, gold I bring to crown Him again." This one is the most straightforward - gold symbolizes the Kingship of Christ. "Myrrh is mine: its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom." Myrrh is an embalming spice. Already at Christ's birth, we have the symbolic reminder of his death. "Frankincense to offer have I. Incense owns a deity nigh." In many religious traditions, incense symbolizes prayers rising to heaven. In some pagan traditions, it is thought to help "call down" the deity. The gift of frankincense symbolizes Jesus' role as the Great High Priest, sanctifying the world through his sacrifice.
