"Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
 for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven." - Mt 5:10-12a

NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

A few years ago, I attended a seminar which “unpacked” the Beatitudes. The presenter spoke of the Beatitudes as a “blueprint”, outlining them as “Be-Attitudes”. In this way, they become more than just pious platitudes – they become concrete ways of living, acting and being. This is very important for us in the modern age, for we can look at many of Jesus’ pronouncements as ideals, things for which we can strive, but not really “livable”.

When we look at the Beatitudes, they are not ways of being which happen all at once; for all, however, they do happen. There are different times of our lives when we mourn, are called to be peacemakers, to be meek, to be merciful and the like. Many of these “ways of living”/“states in life” happen as a result of us living in the world; many happen because of our lives rooted in faith. When we lose a loved one, we mourn; when we see hurt, violence or injustice, we are called to be peacemakers; when we live our lives rooted in faith, we may be persecuted for righteousness’ sake. These are things which, in most cases, cannot be avoided.

I can remember growing up when things didn’t go our way, my mother’s standard response was “don’t worry, ‘your reward will be great in heaven’ (Mt 5:12)”. Of course, our standard response to that was “yeah, but what about now?!” We couldn’t understand how God could “turn a blind eye” (or so we thought at the time) to our trials and tribulations (which in most cases, truth be told, weren’t all that bad!). We were always taught that God knew all, saw all and cared for all. Why, then, did God not see what was going on in our lives? Well, as it turns out He did. There is that tricky little condition called the “permissive will of God”, which allows for the fact that God sees all, but allows things to happen for the greater good. This is why God allows us to mourn, to be persecuted, to act meekly – for our “reward will be great in heaven” (ibid.).

We go through our lives often times wondering if God is there and if so, where? We may get angry or even doubt of God’s existence. While it is fine to get angry (I think God can take it!), we should never let that anger take root, keeping us from seeing the presence of God in all things, even (maybe especially) in tragedies and sorrows. Our God knows suffering; our God knows death. Our God ultimately, though, is a God of life, and life abundantly. Let us always seek to see God’s presence in all things. Let us know that our God will never leave us abandoned and that He will bring us, ultimately, into His Kingdom of light, happiness and peace.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Paul

February Family Mass

2/8 at the 9:30 Mass at St. Ann

For this Mass, we invite our kids to do the readings and bring up the gifts. We also invite all kids in attendance to join Fr. Paul for the homily and everyone to join us at the back of the church afterwards for snacks. If your child is interested in bringing up the gifts or doing a reading, please email Matt Brady.

February Teen Mass

2/22 at the 6:15 Mass at St. Ann

Our next Teen Mass is February 22nd.

At these Masses, we invite our teens to do a reading or bring up the gifts. Fr. Paul also tailors his homily to be relevant to their life and there is contemporary music at the Mass. If your teen is interested in bringing up the gifts or doing a reading, please email Matt Brady.

"There's a certain Wednesday during the year when you can easily tell who's Catholic."

"I doubt you need to Ash me which one that is."

During Mass on Ash Wednesday, the priest will place ashes on our forehead. This is a symbol to remind us of our mortality. From dust we have come, and to dust we will return.

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

In today's gospel, Jesus presents the Beatitudes. More than just pious platitudes, Jesus presents these "Blessings" as a blueprint as to how one can and should live their lives. They are by no means easy to achieve, but they are doable if one includes Christ in one's life. St. Francis was no doubt influenced by them, and each one of them speaks volumes as to how Francis lived his life (post-conversion) and created the Order which bears his name. While they all speak to aspects of Francis' life, the one which most obviously comes to mind is "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God" (Matthew 5:9). The "Peace Prayer of St. Francis" may or may not have been written by him, but it is ascribed to him by most, and certainly fits into the milieu of his life.

Peace Prayer of Saint Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

Where there is hatred, let me sow love;

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

*O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,
To be understood as to understand,
To be loved as to love.*

For it is in giving that we receive,

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Amen.

May this prayer, along with the Beatitudes, serve as a blue print of Christian living for us all!

Peace and All Good,

Fr. Paul, OFS

"Heavenly Father, bless our Patriots, grant strength and skill, protect from injury, guide coaches, and foster sportsmanship and unity for a safe, spirited game," often ending in "Amen".
