DEACONS' CORNER

Since we have entered the season of Lent, we have been reminded and encouraged to fast, to give alms and to pray. I dare say we are pretty good in responding to the counsel to fast and to give alms. What place in our lives during this season does prayer have? Older members of our communities were taught that prayer is the lifting of our minds and hearts to God. "Let us lift up our minds and hearts to God." [Lamentations 3:41] When one prays, one enters into a mysterious, intimate encounter with God. Jesus Himself often drew apart in solitude to pray to His Father, particularly before decisive moments of His mission and the mission of His disciples. He encouraged His disciples "to be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to escape the tribulations that are imminent and to stand before the Son of Man." [Luke 21:34-36]

We had many moments in prayer during the past week's Lenten mission. We prayed individually and with one another. We have experienced the different forms of prayer: devotional prayer, prayer in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, and of course joining our voices in song during Mass. We have adored God and venerated our Blessed Mother. We have offered thanks to God for the many graces given to us. We have asked God's forgiveness and pardon in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We have prayed for our Church and for our own personal needs with humility and conviction that whatever we asked for in Jesus' name, it has been granted to us. It is always helpful to keep in mind that when it comes to prayer, don't wait for a time to pray, but make time to pray.

God bless you, Deacon Brendan

My Dear Friends in Christ,

It is at this point in the journey of one going through the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) that the candidate would undertake the first of the "scrutinies", a period of deep introspection preparing one for reception of the Sacraments of the Church. We are blessed here in the Collaborative to have folks going through this process, and so we read the particular gospel passage appropriate for the day. The three "themes" covered in these scrutinies are "water", "light" and "life". Today's gospel (along with the first reading) covers the first of these themes, "water".

In the first reading, Moses is leading the Israelites from bondage in Egypt to freedom in the Promised Land. They have had it rough – they are running low, or are out of, food and water. They are grumbling against Moses and rebelling against his leadership. They are fed up! In complaining to Moses, their wish is to go back to Egypt, for they feel that it's better to live in bondage than to die in freedom. Moses then moves up the "chain of command" and brings the people's plea to God. God then commands Moses to draw water from the rock, striking it with the staff with which he previously parted the Red Sea. The people are then nourished with water from the rock, showing them that God is, indeed, in their midst (as they had doubted God's presence).

In today's gospel, we see again that theme of "water" at work. In this account of Jesus and the "woman at the well" (as she has been come to be known throughout salvation history), there are two different "types" of water at work here: there is actual, physical water, being drawn from a well, and there is spiritual water, found in the person of Jesus. It seems that there are many "surprises" throughout this passage, as well. Jesus' encounter with the woman at the well is unusual enough – a man speaking with a woman in public (unheard of at the time), a Samaritan and a Jew having anything to do with one another (unheard of, as well). Then you have the insights of Jesus which surprise the woman to the point of "provoking" her to engage in discipleship, by calling others to come and see this stranger who seems to know so much about her. She takes her personal encounter with Christ and brings others to the knowledge of the truth which she has encountered.

Throughout our Lenten journey, we are called to encounter Jesus in many ways, especially in the three-fold tenets of Lent: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. May we direct our prayer to seeking to know Jesus better. May we fast so as to join in the sacrifice of Christ. May we engage ourselves in almsgiving, using our time, talent and treasure to build up our community of faith. May our Lenten journey be "successful" in drawing us ever closer into the mystery that is God.

Have a Blessed Lent,

Fr. Paul

Last week, Catholics across the Archdiocese were invited to pledge their support to the annual Catholic Appeal. If you were unable to make your pledge at Mass, please take a pledge form from the back of the church or pledge online at: bostoncatholicappeal.org

Thank you for your prayers for a successful Catholic Appeal. Remember if we meet our goal, we will receive a rebate rather than an assessment.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The formation of Church Collaboratives is happening all through the Archdiocese of Boston. Churches are being introduced to the process in various time frames. One of the advantages to collaborate is the combination of some resources in an effort to save money and a better utilization of priests' times.

We are one collaborative with two churches working together in a joint effort to evangelize and build strong faith communities.

We pray for a name for our collaborative which represents our strength, commitment, and faith.

PLEASE PRAY ON A NAME AND FILL OUT THE FORM BELOW!

COLLABORATIVE NAME

The collaboration of St. Ann and St. John need a COLLABORATION name to define our newly joined faith community,
(THE CHURCHES WILL REMAIN ST. ANN & ST JOHN BUT THE COLLABORATIVE NEEDS A NAME.)

Do you have any suggestions?
Please list them below, cut out this form and put it in the collection at Mass.
All names will be considered by the Parish Pastoral Council.

Third Sunday of Lent:

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to finish his work."

Through your almsgiving you are doing the will of the Father and finishing the work of Jesus. Know that every nickel, dime or quarter you donate is multiplied by the coins from others when supporting the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Are you able to give back this Lent instead of giving something up? Every monetary donation you make to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul helps us put food on the table of your neighbor or heating oil in their tank to keep them warm, or pay an electric bill that is outstanding and many other acts of kindness.

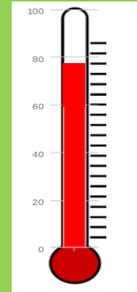

If you know any East Bridgewater resident in need of food or other assistance please have them call the St. Vincent de Paul HOTLINE at 508-378-3760. Together we can make a difference.
