NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

When I was a boy, I can remember spending every Easter Sunday evening glued to the television, watching "The Ten Commandments". It was one of the few times my mother let me stay up past my bedtime on a school night...quite a treat! I can remember the "Technicolor" that was employed (an amazing cinematic feature, long before CGI!), and how it brought the story of the Bible to life! One of the stunning moments was the scene of the "burning bush", the moment in salvation history when Moses was on Mount Horeb and he came upon the bush that was burning, but not consumed. Today's first reading recalls the account of Moses and the Burning Bush.

In our first reading, Moses is tending the flock of Jethro, his father-in-law. The "burning bush" (which, as I say, was burning but not consumed by the flames) catches the attention of Moses. Little wonder it does, between the sight of the bush and the presence of the angel of the Lord; it is a sight which would catch the attention of anyone looking on the scene! In the encounter, Moses hears the voice of God, telling him who He is and what He wants Moses to do. Moses is to lead the Israelites to freedom, freedom from the oppression of Pharaoh. When Moses asks who it is he should say has sent him, God replies "I am who am" (Exodus 3:14). This is a key moment, for it reveals God as one of the "present moment" (signified by the fact that God uses the present tense). It is the same God who created the world. It is the same God who created us. It is the same God who is with us, here and now.

When we hear of this "God of the present moment", we should take courage and have hope. Our God is one who is with us here and now. We do not have a God who set the world in motion and left us abandoned. We have a God who walks with us in this day and age, in this moment in time, in this Lenten Season (and in ALL Seasons).

May we take comfort in the fact that our God is one who is with us in all time, and for all time, until such time as He calls us home to Himself. May we know that when we call upon God, He does not need to be summoned for He is with us now. May we walk through this Lenten Season knowing that God walks with us now and into the Paschal Mystery of the life, death and resurrection of His Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Have a (Continued) Blessed Lent,
Fr. Paul

THE DEADLINE TO ORDER EASTER FLOWERS IS 3/24.

WE NEED YOUR ASSISTANCE IN ORDER TO HAVE THE ALTAR AS BEAUTIFUL AS LAST YEAR.

Lenten Mission: Pilgrims of Hope

For the theme of the Jubilee 2025, Pope Francis has chosen the virtue of hope. Why is hope so essential for being a Catholic today? What is hope? How can we grow in hope? Join us for this year's Lenten Mission to find out!

Sunday 3/23: 6:15 pm Mass, 7 pm talk at St. Ann
Monday 3/24: 7 pm Mass followed by talk at St. John

Pope Francis: Hope does not disappoint!

March Teen Mass

Our next Teen Mass is March 23 at the 6:15 Mass at St. Ann. Similar to Family Mass, we invite our teens to do a reading or bring up the gifts. Fr. Paul also tailors his homily to be relevant to their life and there is contemporary music at the Mass. If your teen is interested in bringing up the gifts or doing a reading, please email Matt Brady.

April Family Mass

April 6 at the 9:30 Mass at St. John
Our final Family Mass of the school year is April 6 at the 9:30 Mass at St. John. We invite our kids to do the readings and bring up the gifts, and Fr. Paul has the kids join him around the altar for the homily. There is also coffee and donuts in the back of the church after Mass. If your child is interested in bringing up the gifts or doing a reading, please email Matt Brady.

Lenten Simple Suppers are back!

Last year we did two Soup and Stations nights before the Stations of the Cross. This year we are doing Simple Suppers at 6 pm before all the Stations. They are potluck style, so please bring a simple meatless dish (it doesn't have to be soup) to share if you are so inclined. But all are welcome, so bringing something is not a requirement! Hope to see you there— see the last page and the flyers in the church for the schedule.

FORWARD in FAITH

Dear Friends,

I have been called to love, to trust, and to serve you, the Archdiocese of Boston. I am humbled to walk with you and am inspired by your generosity of spirit. Already, I have discovered that our Church here is alive with very faith-filled, welcoming people.

I look forward to so many things as I begin this new chapter in my priestly life and ministry with you. Among them is witnessing the collective good work being done by the Catholic Appeal. As I have traveled through different regions, I have been inspired by so many people who do God's work through parishes, ministries, Catholic schools, and programs.

Your concern and engagement for the common good and for the mission of the Church is visible through your support of the Catholic Appeal. Your yearly generosity allows us to assist those in need of food and shelter, educate our children, support our future priests, care for the sick, and support the many vibrant ministries of the Church. With your support, those in need will be assisted and feel the power of Christ's love.

I invite you to join me in prayer and reflection as to how you can support this year's Catholic Appeal. I also hope you will see this as an opportunity to make a difference and to honor Christ's charitable gift to us in the Eucharist.

God Bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Archbishop Richard Henning

EXTRAORDINARY PARTICIPATION = EXTRAORDINARY IMPACT

The Catholic Appeal funds hundreds of services, programs, and ministries that provide real and tangible evidence that our faith is alive, vibrant, and strong. Here are just a few ways in which your support affirms the lives of others:

VIBRANT PARISHES

Parishes are home for our Christian hearts. Our Archdiocese celebrates 250 parishes each with their own unique culture and character, but all rooted in the same mission: to continue the saving ministry of Jesus Christ. The Catholic Appeal provides support and expertise for pastors so that they can develop their parishes into vibrant centers of community.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

An essential component of the Church's ministry is the education of the next generation of disciples. The Catholic Appeal supports the Catholic Schools Office with professional staff and resources that help schools develop students' academic foundations, spiritual fortitude, strong moral convictions, and the desire to be civically engaged.

“Deacons experience a unique dimension of service. We’re called to go out to serve the people in the community who might be marginalized for whatever reason. Maybe they’re in a nursing home, maybe they’re unhoused, maybe they just don’t come to church. We’re more in the world. We work, we all have jobs. We’re evangelizing, even if we’re not intentionally evangelizing.”

— Deacon Tom O’Shea

PERMANENT DIACONATE

Living in the world, deacons serve communities with a unique authority to minister and bring the presence of Christ to those in need. They are anchors to the communities in which they serve. The Catholic Appeal supports the Office of Vocations through which candidates for the diaconate receive academic instruction, faith formation, and classes on spiritual and human development.

MARRIAGE SUPPORT

Marriage provides the foundation of families from which our communities are strengthened and nourished. Gifts to the Catholic Appeal help ensure that programs that strengthen marriages continue to thrive and resources for the lifelong journey of marriage are available and accessible.

“Marriage is a discovery process where both people learn how to adapt to one another’s needs. The faith is so important in keeping a marriage strong, because we believe in a higher power that we should worship and looking at marriage as a vocation towards that end.” — Raymond

Let's move Forward in Faith together with a gift to this year's Catholic Appeal. Help to share Christ's hope and love with all those who seek it.

If you have received Archbishop Henning's letter in the mail and already made your gift or pledge, thank you! If not, there are several ways you can participate in the 2025 Catholic Appeal:

- Use an in-pew envelope and return it to your parish. Most parishes will conduct an in-pew presentation next week during Masses.
- Make an online donation by scanning the QR code below or by visiting our website:
Bostoncatholicappeal.org

For greater sustained impact, select the recurring gift option.
Your monthly donation will continue until you ask us to stop.

- Make a gift through your Donor-Advised Fund using TAX ID #04-2106175 (Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Boston) and include Catholic Appeal and your home parish in the donation details.
- Make a planned gift in the form of a bequest, stock, or property transfer, IRA distribution, or charitable gift of annuity.

To learn more, visit bostoncatholicappeal.org/ways-to-give.
Your gift is tax deductible to the extent permitted by law: Tax ID #04-2106175.

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

I was having a conversation about my life in the context of the Secular Franciscans, and this person asked me “Does this mean that you are no longer a diocesan priest?” It is one of the more common questions I get asked, and it is born out of both a desire to know more about the Secular Franciscans and an unknowing about what Third Orders are about in the world of the Church. Most religious orders (Dominicans, Jesuits, Franciscans, etc.) have some sort of “Third Order”, with the first two “orders” dealing with the ordained or vowed members of that particular religious order. The “Third Order” traditionally deals with the laity or diocesan clergy. In fact, the link between the Third Order and Diocesan clergy has a lot to do with that word... Secular.

Along with being referred to as “diocesan clergy”, another way of addressing the work that I do is by referring to us as “secular clergy”. Simply put, this means that we make “promises” rather than take vows, and we are linked with a particular diocese, rather than a larger religious order (which spans many dioceses throughout the country and world). This does NOT mean that we are not affiliated more with the world than the church! In joining the Secular Franciscan Order, I am within the ranks of men and women who have decided that our focus and attention in our prayer and our living out our Baptismal Call has been, and is, influenced by the person, writings, and charism of St. Francis of Assisi.

Years ago, I was standing outside of church after Mass one Sunday, and someone noticed my “monastic alb” (the white garment worn under the chasuble (the outer robe worn at Mass), which has a hood on it); they also noticed my sandals (which I would wear year-round if weather permitted it!). In spying my garb, they inquired of me “Father, are you Dominican (because of my alb) or Franciscan (because of my sandals)?” At the time I joked that “I’m not smart enough to be a Dominican, and not nice enough to be a Franciscan!” Little did I know what God had in store for me! In all seriousness, I believe I’ve always had Franciscan “leanings”. I used to say that while my choice of diocesan priesthood was largely influenced by the diocesan clergy in the parishes in which I grew up, if I ever chose to join a religious order that it would be the Franciscans. So, perhaps God knew that I was going to take this path all along.

As I continue to live my Secular Franciscan journey within the context of my priesthood, I invite you to pray over where God might be calling you to serve His Church. Look at the things that attract you about the Faith, and move in that direction, trusting that it is God’s Holy Spirit leading the way, helping you to walk the path that He is calling you to walk.

Pax et Bonum,

Fr. Paul, OFS
