MASSES FOR THE WEEK

My Dear Friends in Christ,

We are an Easter People, and Alleluia is our song! I want to take this opportunity to wish you and yours a very blessed Easter Day and Season. We tend to forget that Easter is a season, and not just one day on the calendar. In all truth, each day God gives us is a “little Easter”. Each day is a new opportunity for us to “rise and shine” (even those of us who aren’t “morning people”!) and look for ways to serve our God in our brothers and sisters. Each day is a chance to engage in discipleship and to spread the Good News that is the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Mary of Magdala (or Mary Magdalene, as she is more commonly known to us) is given that opportunity on that first Easter Sunday. Mary is given the chance to share the news of the Resurrection, even if she doesn’t fully understand what is happening. She approaches the tomb, which is empty, and on seeing the stone rolled away she runs to get Simon Peter and “the other disciple whom Jesus loved” (Jn 20:2) (who biblical scholars have come to identify as John, the “Beloved Disciple”).

Here is where “the plot thickens”, as writers like to say. On approaching the tomb, John arrives first but does not enter; he waits for Simon Peter to arrive. Why? Mainly because faith (as represented by John) always precedes knowledge/authority (as manifested in Simon Peter), but waits for knowledge to verify our faith before acting. Our first encounter with Christ – our Baptism - was taken on faith; the actions entailed in the Sacrament were undertaken by our Parents, Godparents and the Clergy who performed the Baptism. We trusted that our parents had our best interest at heart in bringing us to the baptismal font. It wasn’t until our Confirmation, when we had the wisdom to do so, that we fully took on our faith for ourselves.

Easter is a season of new possibilities. It gives hope in a brighter tomorrow, even in the midst of challenge and struggle. It helps us to realize that our lives do not end in death if we have faith that Christ’s life, death, and resurrection happened so that we might have newness of life. May we celebrate this day and season with a renewed sense of hope in God’s promise of Life Everlasting. May we come to the understanding that Jesus Christ has broken the chains of sin and death and won for us the gift of Eternal Life.

A Blessed Easter to All,

Fr. Paul

Easter Egg Hunt

This year's Easter Egg Hunt, which is sponsored by the Family Life Ministry, will take place after the 9:30 Mass at St. Ann on Easter Sunday. We have lots of eggs so everyone is welcome! There will be a dedicated area for the little ones, and the eggs will be filled with a mix of candy and toys.

April Teen Mass

Our next Teen Mass will be Sunday 4/7 at the 6:15 Mass at St. Ann. There will be contemporary music and the teens are invited to do one of the readings or bring up the gifts. Volunteering for either of these roles counts for the parish portion of the Confirmation service requirement, so it's a good way to complete it and get your teen involved in the Mass. If interested please contact Matt Brady.

Sandwich Making for Capuchin Mobile Ministries

April 22 at 6:30 pm St. Ann

Every month we make sandwiches to be distributed to the homeless in Boston and Cambridge by Capuchin Mobile Ministries. This is a great service project that anyone can do! All are welcome, especially those in need of service hours.

April Family Mass

Our next Family Mass is April 28 at the 9:30 Mass at St. Ann. We invite our kids to do the readings and bring up the gifts, and Fr. Paul has the kids join him around the altar for the homily. There is also coffee and donuts in the back of the church after Mass.

If your child is interested in bringing up the gifts or doing a reading please contact Matt Brady.

EASTER

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

The sanctity of Francis of Assisi is a many ‘splendored thing. He is an EVANGELICAL saint, for he sought to imitate Christ by living in a most radical way the perfection of the Holy Gospel. He is likewise an ECCLESIAL saint, a man who anchored his mission and his teaching in that of the mystical Bride of Christ, the holy Catholic Church. Nature-lovers claim Francis of Assisi, the friend and brother of creation, as an ECOLOGICAL saint. Those involved in dialogue with other religions hail the Sultan-visiting, peace-promoting Francis as the model of an ECUMENICAL saint. But can the Poor Man of Assisi, who bore on his body the wounds of Jesus Crucified, be rightly called an EASTER saint?

For St. Francis, the spiritual Easter was not a one-time event, but a journey, a process. Like St. Paul, Francis could declare: All I want to know is Christ and the power flowing from His Resurrection! This knowledge and power enabled Francis to take the Cross-road which leads to glory: sharing in (Christ’s) sufferings by being formed into the pattern of His death, Francis hoped that (he) too might attain to the resurrection from the dead. (Phil 3:10-11). Francis’ road to Easter began with a profound encounter with Jesus Crucified. Praying before the crucifix in the church of San Damiano outside Assisi during the first years of his conversion, Francis heard Christ address to him the heart-shaking words: Francis, rebuild My house! The future saint felt a mysterious change in himself, but he could not describe it. This was the beginning of his spiritual Easter.

St. Francis journeyed to Easter transformation by contemplating and imitating Jesus in the mysteries of His poverty and humility. Seraphic love even compelled the Poor Man to ask Christ to grant him to feel in his body the pains of the Passion and to feel in his heart the love which urged Christ to die for sinners. In September 1224, two years before the Seraphic Patriarch’s death, God answered his prayer with the imprinting of the Sacred Stigmata, making Francis an icon of the Crucified Jesus. Yet, Francis’ immersion in the mysteries of the Passion did not make him sad or somber. Rather, the sorrows of the Lord opened Francis to a deeper, truer joy. The wounds of Christ’s Passion which the Poor Man bore were in truth signs of spiritual resurrection, God visibly confirming Francis’ passage through death to life. The Easter life is new life, - life in Christ. Again and again, the 13th century authors hail St. Francis as the new man. In him, new signs of sanctity appear, new prodigies are made manifest. His religious family is a new flock in the Church, a new Order, living a new life. Francis proclaimed even in his body that if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature: the former things have passed away. Behold! They are made new! (2 Cor. 5:17) Francis’ Easter newness was the fruit of his union with the Crucified and Risen One. This union is the secret of the Little Poor Man’s joy, his peace-making skills, his enthusiasm for the things of God, his unique relationship with creation. Illness, disappointment, pain, betrayal and misunderstanding still marked Francis’ earthly pilgrimage. But, he saw these sufferings in a new light. He understood that through them, God was making all things work toward an eternal good, an eternal Easter. And so in Francis and through him an unexpected joy and a holy newness came into the world. St. Francis’ mission of newness did not end with death. Those present at his funeral services saw his body, adorned with the wounds of Christ, shining with a marvelous brightness. In life, Francis bore in his body the likeness of the sufferings of Christ. In death, his body presaged the glory of the future resurrection: The wounds he has show forth Gifts of a newer kind. The power of this new life was also manifested in the wonders which occurred through his intercession: he shone with the new light of miracles after his death.

THIS WEEK’S SECOND COLLECTION IS FOR Clergy Trust

NEXT WEEK WILL BE FOR REPAIRS

Against this backdrop, the Easter references in St. Francis’ writings shine with a new splendor. When composing his devotional Office of the Cross, the Seraphic Father included a special Office for the Easter Season. Yet even in the solemn Offices for Holy Week, the thought of Resurrection is present: Arise, my glory! Arise, lyre and harp! I will arise at dawn! I have slept and risen and my most Holy Father has received me in glory. Christ made Francis, the Easter Saint, a singer of the new song of Redemption. In the “Exhortation to the Praise of God,” the Poor Man sang as his own the hymn of those who stand before the Throne of God in heaven: Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power, glory and honor! His song of Easter triumph is likewise that of the Church on earth: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! St. Francis of Assisi shows what can happen when the grace of Easter becomes effective in a Christian’s life. He teaches us that every earthly suffering holds the seed of resurrection. For Francis, Easter was a vibrant reality that gave light and hope and even energy for his daily journey with Christ to the Father. He teaches us that the real saints (the Easter saints) are the quite human, quite natural people in whom, through the Easter purification and trans-formation, what is human appears afresh in its total originality and beauty.

Dear Lord, You demand justice for Your children who have been wronged. Give strength to people who investigate and prosecute traffickers. Encourage them when they are weary. Give courage to survivors when they are asked to testify against their former captors.

Pray for salvation of people being trafficked.

Jesus, would you save those being trafficked not only from the slavery they are held in, but from the slavery that is in their hearts. Save them from the sin that, no matter where a person is born and what life they live, is always there. You are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love. Cause these dear people to call upon you so that you can save them. Grant them an eternity where every tear will be wiped away and every injustice against them made right. May You be their hope.

Psalm 86:5

"For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call upon you."

Understanding the Mass

The Mass, or celebration of the Eucharist, is the principal liturgical action in the Roman Catholic Church. It is the central action and aspect of our lives of faith and the primary way Catholics worship God as a community. The word “Mass” comes from the Latin word, missa meaning “mission” or “sending” because the liturgy is to send forth the faithful to bring forth the Good News of Jesus and to be His sacramental presence in the world. It can also be referred to as “Liturgy” which means “work of the people.” It is also a time to give God thanks and praise, as the word “Eucharist” means “thanksgiving.”

Catholics gather for Mass on Sundays, Holy Days, and sometimes on a daily basis in order to honor and praise God and unite in prayer with fellow believers in Christ. The celebration of Mass is the foundation for the universal Church and for the individual believer. Participation in the gift of the Eucharist feeds, transforms, and heals us in our spiritual journey. We are empowered to go forth and continue the saving ministry of Jesus in our daily lives. We are centered on God and on the mystery of God’s love for us through the redemptive sacrifice of Christ on the cross.

In celebrating the Mass, we continue to follow the example of the early Christians who gathered together to witness the belief that Christ lives on through our liturgical worship and the lives of the faithful. In the Mass, we gather together as a community of believers, many parts of the one body of Christ. We remember all that Christ has done and sacrificed for us and that Jesus truly remains with us. We celebrate Christ’s active presence among us when Christ becomes truly present in the Eucharist.
