DEACONS' CORNER

Hosanna, Hosanna in the Highest; This weekend we celebrate our Lord's triumphant entry into Jerusalem. On Palm Sunday, we find ourselves on the cusp of celebrating our Lord's Passion through which the great gift of salvation was made possible by Jesus Christ's death on the cross and his resurrection on the third day. We have many things to be thankful to God for, but above everything else our salvation is at the top of the list. We began our Lenten Journey with the celebration of Ash Wednesday, a day upon which we recognize our mortality and the need to place God first in our lives. What you may not know is that the ashes you received on Ash Wednesday are made from the Palm branches of the previous year's Palm Sunday. So, in a sense over the Lenten season we are journeying from death into life. It is a life that all those who believe in Jesus Christ contemplate and nurture as they mature in their faith journeys. This weekend contemplate the love God has for us and Jesus Christ's total obedience to God the Father. If you haven't made it to the Sacrament of Reconciliation the light is on for you this Wednesday evening at 6:30 to around 8:00 pm. Take advantage of this grace filled moment before we begin the Easter Celebration.

May God Bless
Deacon Joe Hopgood

My Dear Friends in Christ,

If someone were to ask you, "what is the holiest day in the Church year", what would your answer be? Most, I dare say, would answer "Christmas"...and they'd be wrong! Now, don't get me wrong – I like Christmas as much as the next person, but it is second to Easter, the most sacred day of the Church Year. We begin our "final approach" into Easter (as well as our Holy Week services) with today's celebration of Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion (interchangeably referred to as either "Palm Sunday" or "Passion Sunday" (due to our reading of the Passion Narrative today)).

Today is unique in that two gospel passages are read, one depicting Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem and one speaking to us of Jesus' Passion and Death. Both read at today's liturgy serve as "bookends" to our Holy Week services. The entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem (intoned at the beginning of Mass) speaks of the kingship of Christ, for it is a celebration befitting royalty, with people lining the streets offering shouts of praise and acclamation to Jesus. They recognize Jesus as Messiah at this moment, and pledge their loyalty to Him with shouts of "hosanna" (a word which means "save us" or "help", an appropriate cry made to Jesus). The interesting thing is that the same crowd who is crying "hosanna" is most likely the same crowd who, in a few short days, will be calling for blood with cries of "crucify him".

This is where the second gospel (read at the usual time) comes in. It is the telling of the Passion and Death of Jesus, about how He was betrayed and handed over to be killed just a few hours after celebrating the Last Supper (a Passover meal) with His disciples. This depiction of the last hours of Jesus' earthly life serve as a reminder to us of how much Jesus gave Himself for us, offering His life so as to save ours. The telling of this Passion narrative shows to us that Jesus, He without sin, became sin for us and won for us newness of life. Jesus did all of this without rebelling, without turning back, not shielding Himself from the torture and torment that He knew awaited Him. This is true love, the self-emptying love by which Jesus shows us how we are to act.

May this Passion/Palm Sunday be a fitting time for us to unite ourselves with Jesus. Let us make the long walk to Calvary with Him so that we might have a share in His Passion, Death and, ultimately, Resurrection. May we have the courage to not turn back, to not shy away from all that Jesus suffered, so that we might have a share in new and everlasting life!

Wishing You All A Blessed Holy Week,

Fr. Paul

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The formation of Church Collaboratives is happening all through the Archdiocese of Boston. Churches are being introduced to the process in various time frames.
One of the advantages to collaborate is the combination of some resources in an effort to save money and a better utilization of priests' times.

We are one collaborative with two churches working together in a joint effort to evangelize and build strong faith communities.

We pray for a name for our collaborative which represents our strength, commitment, and faith.

PLEASE PRAY ON A NAME

Lauren Benvie: “Being older, it was an amazing experience to lead a group of young adults through the week of service and faith. Through many challenging discussions and acts of service, my faith in God grew stronger and I have become more confident in my faith and my leadership skills. I look forward to engaging more in my faith now that I'm home and sharing my experiences and all that I've learned the past two years in Nashville with those around me.”
