My Dear Friends in Christ,

In the classic Christian song “His Banner Over Me Is Love”, we sing the verse that “He is the Shepherd and we are the sheep”. I have to be honest and tell you that it took me the longest time to get over being called a “sheep”. Being from the city, the only time I saw sheep was either at the 4H exhibit at the Brockton Fair or at a petting zoo. I thought of sheep as dumb and smelly, and I took some offense at being compared to these “creatures”.

The point (in this song) of being called sheep is in regards to a trait in sheep of which I hadn't thought – trust. In fact, it was my friend Fr. Rayappa (an Indian priest whose family are shepherds) who pointed this out to me. The reason why sheep follow a shepherd is because they trust him; the sheep know the shepherds voice and they follow only that voice – other voices, other shepherds are ones which they will not follow. This is an admirable quality, one which we would do to emulate.

Jesus uses this analogy for two reasons. Firstly, Jesus used “earthy” images because they were ones to which the people could relate; they were people of the land, many of whom worked with sheep. The fact that the Pharisees couldn't “relate” to this analogy shouldn't surprise us; most things which Jesus taught went “over the heads” of the Pharisees. Secondly, the aforementioned quality of trust is one of which Jesus speaks with great love and conviction. Jesus knows that He is the “Good Shepherd”, sent by God to lead the people to the “sheepfold” of God. While we might have a hard time relating to Jesus as shepherd (most having never met a shepherd!), we shouldn't have any trouble relating to the fact that Jesus has come to lead us to God. It was for this reason that Jesus came into the world, it was for this reason why He died for us and it is for this reason why we have newness of life!

May we have an open heart, willing to hear the voice of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. May we know that Jesus calls us to life in God for our good. May we trust that Jesus will lead us on right paths, guiding us in His Everlasting Way. May we, one day, come to the verdant pasture of the Kingdom, sharing in new and everlasting life!

Blessings of Easter Peace,

Fr. Paul

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Are you feeling these days like your life is "tied up in knots" (honestly, whose doesn't to some degree)? Let us take the opportunity to ask Mary, "Our Lady Undoer of Knots", to intercede for us.

This powerful Novena will present the chance for us to ask our Blessed Mother to present our petitions to her Son. Join me for the next eight Mondays (we began on 4/20, but no worries...you can join right in!) for the Novena, along with Evening Prayer, at 7:00 p.m. on Facebook Live. "Our Lady, Undoer of Knots, pray for us.". For more information on the Novena, you can go to

STORY TIME W/ FR. PAUL & NELLIE

My Dear Friends in Christ,

These are an uncertain times and, if you're like me, we look for reassurance during such moments. One of the ways my mother used to reassure my siblings and me was to read to us. They were always entertaining, and had a message for us that gave comfort to us. In that same vein, I will be offering "Story Time with Fr. Paul and Nellie". From the warm confines of my chapel, Nellie and I will be reading (well, I'll be reading...she'll be there for emotional support for us all!) from various books that I hope will be of comfort and reassurance. I will be doing this by way of Facebook Live, and I invite you to join me.

So, after "online school" has let out and supper has been served, please join me (by way of Facebook Live) on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:00 p.m. for "Storytime With Fr. Paul and Nellie". I pray that this will give comfort and support to all, young and young-at-heart!

Peace,

Fr. Paul

Here is a suggestions for an unusual game to keep the kids entertained. Great for adults as well. Make the best of this time together or apart. This can be played over the phone too.

STINKY PINKIES

A rhyming riddle game that you can play at all different levels, with kids who just barely know how to rhyme, to people with complex and mysterious brains. My seven-year-old loves to play this in the car. One person thinks of two words that rhyme and have the same number of syllables, and supplies hints, and everyone else has to guess. Whoever guesses correctly first gets to think of the next riddle. If the words have two syllables each, you say you have a stinky pinky. If they have three syllables each, it's a stinkity pinkity. Four syllables, a stink-inkity pink-inkity; and so on. One syllable word pairs are a stink pink, of course.

A simple example: A stink pink that's a container for an orange animal with a big tail. The answer is: Fox box.

A more complicated one: What's a wild, irresponsible string of pearls? Answer: a reckless necklace. I asked my son this one, and he guessed "unruly jewelry," which doesn't scan right, but is pretty good! I also gave him the hint of something that fastens pants and goes upside down, with "zipper flipper" in

FIRST RESPONDERS - THANK YOU PRAYER

I thank God for giving you a strength
That exceeds any measure
I thank God for giving you a courage
That allows you to run towards danger
So others can be safe
I thank God for showing us all, through you
What it means to put others first
I thank God for showing us your bright light in the darkest of times
I pray that today and everyday
You feel the love and support
Of those whose lives you have saved and changed
Of the community you protect
And of God who gives us all strength

Pope Francis' Prayer To Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick. At the foot of the Cross you participated in Jesus' pain with steadfast faith. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need. We are certain that you will provide, so that, as you did at Cana of Galilee, joy and feasting might return after this moment of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the Father's will and to do what Jesus tells us: He who took our sufferings upon Himself, and bore our sorrows to bring us, through the Cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen. We seek refuge under your protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our pleas – we who are put to the test and deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Pray for Us.

Please keep the following in your prayers:

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Recognizing the Voice of Jesus

When my wireless provider introduced HD Voice, the voice I heard on my phone was unbelievably clear, and it felt at times like both the caller and I were in the same room. The best aspect of this feature is that it didn't cost the customer any additional fees, and it didn't require any changes to the phone. I could say it was free, but I suspect I was already paying for it in my monthly bill anyway. At least it felt free.

The clearer the voice calling you, the easier it is to recognize who it is on the other end of the line. In John's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the gatekeeper who opens the gate and calls for his sheep. They respond because they know his voice. Others try to lure the sheep when the gatekeeper is not there, but the sheep find their voices unclear or unfamiliar.

Jesus is our gatekeeper. But unlike receiving something for free from a wireless company, to be able to hear his voice we need to pay attention and practice listening. By developing a stewardship way of life that is mindful and prayerful, we become attuned to his voice and are able to discern when the call is from our Lord and when it is from an imposter. It is great to talk about all the things we can do and all the gifts we can share, but if we are not listening for his call to hear where our offerings are needed, we can end up like a lost sheep searching for the gatekeeper.

Fr. Paul

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.
