NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

As we move through our Easter Season, we have yet another post-Resurrection encounter between Jesus and the disciples. The gospels are full of these moments when Jesus reveals Himself to His “inner circle”. These are the ones who will carry on His message. These are the ones who will continue the work which Jesus established in His time on earth. They come to know Jesus in a new way in these post-Resurrection encounters, for Jesus reveals Himself slowly (partly through the disciples’ lack of recognition).

In this gospel passage, Jesus comes to them as a half-dozen are out fishing. It is a seemingly innocuous event, something which the disciples would be doing anyway. What makes it unique is the presence of the risen Christ. It is Christ who calls them to trust in Him once again, by casting their nets even after working all night and catching nothing. It is then that the disciples (first John, the beloved disciple, then Peter) recognize Jesus. This revelation continues on the seashore, as Jesus feeds them (once again) with bread and fish (perhaps an allusion to the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes?). The revelation is made complete with the conversation between Jesus and Simon Peter.

Perhaps this encounter (between Peter and Jesus) is the most telling. One can only guess what is going through Peter’s mind, but it must have been an uneasy moment for him. When Jesus asks Peter three times “do you love me?”, the unease (bordering on upset) continues for Peter. What Peter perhaps doesn’t realize is that by asking this three-fold question, Jesus is forgiving Peter for his three-fold denial of Jesus (taking place sometime between the Last Supper and Jesus’ Crucifixion). Each time Jesus asks Peter to profess his love for Him, He is preparing him to take hold of the ministry which Jesus has established. It is only when Peter has this sin (of denying Jesus) “washed away” that he can continue the ministry which Jesus has set forth.

Where is it that we need forgiveness? Where do we need to hear from Jesus “do you love me”? We tend to think of forgiveness and reconciliation as “Lenten practices”. Forgiveness, however, isn’t limited to a “season” – or even a time or place. Forgiveness happens when we go to God, pour our heart out, and are freed from those things which are not of God. May we have the courage to approach the Lord, confident of His forgiving love. May we experience the healing which Peter (and the other disciples) encounters in this moment. May we know the healing, forgiving love of God, and share that gift with all whom we meet!

A Blessed Easter Season to You All,

Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

After His Resurrection, one of the first gifts Jesus offers His disciples is the gift of peace. It is a peace that only He can give as it comes not from the world (whose peace is temporary and transitory) but from God's Eternal Kingdom (whose peace is eternal and everlasting). In light of that, I offer you St. Francis' Peace Prayer. It is a "blueprint" on how we (all, not just Franciscans!) are to conduct ourselves in the world. And so, I offer you this:

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

*Where there is hatred, let me sow
love;*

Where there is injury, pardon;

Where there is doubt, faith;

Where there is despair, hope;

Where there is darkness, light;

Where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

To be understood as to understand,

To be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Pax et Bonum,

Fr. Paul, OFS

Famous Quotes by Pope Francis

On Mercy and Forgiveness:

"A little bit of mercy makes the world less cold and more just."

"The Lord never tires of forgiving. It is we who tire of asking for forgiveness."

"There is no sin that God's mercy cannot reach and wipe away when it finds a repentant heart seeking to be reconciled with the father."

"The confessional must not be a torture chamber, but rather an encounter with the Lord's mercy."

On hope and Change:

"Life is a journey."

"Hope is the virtue of those who, facing difficulties, know how to set out with trust in the Lord."

"To be faithful, to be creative, we need to be able to change. To change! And why must I change? So that I can adapt to the situations in which I must proclaim the Gospel."

In caring for the Poor and Vulnerable:

"We need to let ourselves be evangelized by the poor. They have much to teach us."

"Embrace with tender affection the whole of humanity, especially the poorest, the weakest, the least important."

"How I would like a Church which is poor and for the poor!"

On the importance of Unity and Peace:

"Peace is not a product that is bought; it is built day by day with justice, forgiveness, and love."

Hostility, extremism, and violence are not born of a religious heart; they are betrayals of religion."

"Let us not be satisfied with a mediocre life. Be amazed by what is true and beautiful, what is of God!"

Words to live by.

May the angels and saints embrace you upon your arrival!
