DEACONS' CORNER

Here we are at the Fourth of July already! Summer is off to a very warm but pleasant start and I am sure many of us are enjoying the cookouts associated with the summer months. I believe it is important for each of us on the fourth of July to not only take time to enjoy the fireworks displays but also to spend some time in prayer and thanksgiving to God for all the brave individuals that have made our freedom possible and still find themselves in harms way. I have been in other countries where one cannot take these same liberties of freedom of speech and religion for granted. Let us take time to pray for all the leaders of the countries of the world that they be guided by God and that peace comes to rule this world as Jesus Christ has asked us to have.

Closer to home let us be mindful of our elderly neighbors in this heat and check in on them to make sure they are doing well and share some of our time with them.

May God Bless
Deacon Joe Hopgood

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Today's gospel reminds me of the scripture studies of the New Testament while in the seminary. In reading today's gospel, I am reminded that we used to say that a passage like this was not the "warm and fuzzy Jesus" to which most of us are used, and of whom most of us think when we think of Jesus. This is a challenging gospel, one which makes us set (or, perhaps, re-set) our priorities. Jesus calls us to establish our relationships in "proper" rank in order to put God first in our lives.

In today's gospel, we are told that "whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me" (Mt 10:37). As if this were not challenging enough, Jesus takes it further by telling us "whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me" (Mt 10:38). This first passage isn't telling us to abandon our familial relationships; it is simply, yet powerfully, calling us to put Jesus first – before mother or father, son or daughter. It is the relationship we have with Jesus that guides all other relationships. In the second passage noted, one is to take up one's cross and follow Jesus. If you're like me, you don't have to look too far or too hard to find the crosses in your life. Once we find them, what do we do with them? Do we leave them for someone else to carry? That would be unfortunate and unfair, especially to the one "stuck" carrying the cross. Do we carry them, but complain all the while? That would be unfortunate and unfair as well, especially to the ones forced to listen to these complaints. We are called to carry our crosses, uniting our sufferings to that of Christ, who first showed us how to carry one's cross with dignity and love.

St. Paul speaks of this union with Christ in a powerful way in our second reading. In the reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans, Paul reminds us that "we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death" (Rom 6:3). This statement calls to mind TWO baptisms: the first is what we traditionally think of when we hear of baptism, that is the Sacrament of Baptism. The second "baptism" (the one "into his death" (ibid) is our entrance into Eternal Life when our earthly life ends. It is in these two baptisms that we have "newness of life" (Rom 6:4). When we are brought to the baptismal font (whether as infants, children, or adults) we experience a "death" of sorts, namely a "dying to self" so that Christ might live in us. When our earthly life ends, we die (physically) but are "reborn" into that "new life" which awaits us in the Kingdom.

May we have the courage to "take up our cross" daily, so that we can journey with the Lord. May we have the courage to put our own needs second, to "die to self" so that Christ might live in us. May this new life, won for us by the sacrifice of Christ, be one in which we share everything with Christ, so that He may share His very life with us.

Have a Blessed Week,
Fr. Paul

COLLABORATIVE NEWS AT ST. ANN'S & ST. JOHN'S

Protecting God's Children is a major priority with the Archdiocese of Boston.

Recently the staffs of Saint Ann's and Saint John's met with Moises Rodrigues from the Office of Child Advocacy to discuss some policies and procedures suggested for the parishes.

Some facts that came out of that meeting of which people should be aware:

The Office of Protecting God's Children is always re-evaluating their policies and trying to improve what they do to protect our children.

That there has not been a new case of clerical sexual abuse since 2005.

That anyone and everyone who has the possibility of dealing with children in the church must be cori'd each year and Virtus trained once.

Prayer of Thanksgiving for Freedom

Freedom is enshrined in our US Constitution. The First Amendment of our constitution protects our freedom of speech. However, our speech may not infringe upon another's freedom. Freedom does have its limits. And we must protect everyone's freedoms, not just ours. On this 4th of July, let us remember from whom all our freedoms originate, our good and gracious God.

Let us pray...

God, giver of all good gifts,
Help us to be thankful for rest and food,
and remember that, in all we do or say,
you are with us, here this day.
We are thankful for all you do
and for everything you have given us.
But above all we are thankful for our freedoms
and the ability to protect others' freedom.
We are free because of you.
We ask for your continued blessing on all your creation.

We need volunteers!

We will be doing yard work, general cleaning or small repair work for our neighbors that need a little help. You are welcome to join us for both days, one day or part of a day. Serving our neighbors will be our first priority but with enough volunteers we would love to get a crew in St. Ann's Parish Hall to clean the main hall and at St. John's to build new kneelers for the Chapel at St. John. If we do not have enough volunteers for our first year we will concentrate on volunteer work on Saturday.

A final decision will be made on July 2nd.

Contact Nancy Smith at 508-838-8490 or nhenn71@hotmail.com to volunteer.

Gracious and loving God,
 let your Spirit be with us today.
 Hear our prayers,
 and increase in us the will to follow your Son Jesus.

Help us to draw on the resources of our faith as we use the opportunities of our democracy to shape a society more respectful of the life, dignity, and rights of the human person, especially the poor and vulnerable.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.
