Balancing Prayer and Work: Dancing the Delicate Dance

Presenter: Michael Boover

Many of us seek to live a life that balances leisure and labor but are hard-pressed to actually do so. This retreat invites participants to explore the “ins and outs” of the spiritual life by opening to inner and outer movements that may prove helpful and hopeful in the daily round of faith. Participants will be invited to integrate needed contemplation with blessed activism in their particular life circumstances.

9:15 am – 4:00 pm (Registration begins at 8:30 am)
Lunch and Mass included in the program.

My Dear Friends in Christ,

As you read this column, we are “on the heels” of a holiday weekend. On the 4th of July, when celebrating the gift of freedom, I thank God for the gift of religious freedom. I thank God that I live in a country where I can exercise my “freedom of religion” by publicly praying to our God for all of the good things that God has provided me over this last half century (plus!) of life.

Among the things which God has provided to me is an opportunity to serve His people in my priestly ministry. Over the last 24 years, God has given me the chance to respond to the call which He placed on my heart many, many years ago. While it took me a while to respond to that initial call (placed on my heart when I was in high school, responded to (finally) after college), these last twenty-four years have been amazing in all of the various ways God has opened up to me to bring souls to Christ by preaching, teaching and serving. In my preaching, God has given me the opportunity to enflame people’s hearts with “a word that will rouse them”. In teaching, God has given me the chance to educate God’s people about the truths of our Faith. In serving, God has placed in me a “servant’s heart”, putting me at the disposal of others, assisting them in ways that bring them closer to God.

The challenges to our religious freedom are there, as well. Now, more than ever, the ability to bring our faith into the “public square” is under attack. We are told that “religion is best kept for worship services” and that “it might be best if we didn’t bring God into this (situation)”. So, America, how’s that working for you? Are we better off now that we cannot pray in school? Are we better off now that we have put God in a “box”, like He is an article of clothing that we pull out only when necessary and when it is “convenient” (to all). I don’t think so. There is a growing attitude that “freedom of religion” means “freedom from religion”. I do not believe that this is what the founders of our great nation intended.

May we have the courage to live out our lives of faith “in season or out of season, whether convenient or inconvenient” (1 Tim 4:2). May we know that it is our God that calls us to live our lives in union with Him. May we cherish this union by living out our belief that we are sent by God to be His heralds. May our great land know the gift of God’s love. May God bless our Parish, may God bless our Church, and may God bless the United States of America.

A Blessed Week to All,

Fr. Paul

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

July 7, 2019
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

If you had $100 to give away, to whom would you give it? Perhaps you would choose someone you love. How about someone on the street at a corner stoplight? You could really make someone's day if you gave it to them as a tip after a modestly priced meal. There are so many possibilities. No matter to whom you give the $100, you are certainly being generous. No one can debate that.

Let's say you have narrowed it down to two different people. You know both of these people, and you suspect each person would be equally grateful. Does it make a difference who you give the money to in the end? What if I told you that one of the individuals just got a big raise at work, and the other person is at risk of having their water turned off because they have been late paying their bill. Does it make a difference now?

Discernment should always be an important part of any good steward's way of life. If we give simply for the sake of giving, that may not always be the best use of our gifts. In order to gain the most fruit from the seeds we plant, we must plant wisely. All we have been given has value, and we need be good caretakers of it all. If you ever do find yourself with $100 to spare, be sure to carefully consider all the options and make the wiser choice. In the meantime, pray for wisdom and reflect on how to best use all you have been given for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 7, 2019
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice.

"Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are.

"Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time.

"The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it over-burden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person
