WAYS TO REMEMBER YOUR LOVED ONES

MEMORIAL MASSES
Suggested donation $25+

HOSTS, WINE AND SANCTUARY LAMPS FOR THE WEEK + the Mass = $55

FLOWERS FOR THE ALTAR FOR THE WEEK
$85+ the mass = $110

For host, wine & sanctuary lamps, flower and the mass, it is a cost of $165

The bookkeeping on payment for these memorial masses has become an issue. Therefore, we are asking that you distinguish your payment from your offertory. Please mark your payments for the memorials and send in the payment AT LEAST TWO WEEKS prior to the memorials. That will give us enough time to order the flowers and pay for them BEFORE the actual mass. Thanks you.

MASSES FOR THE WEEK

My Dear Friends in Christ,

When I was younger, I used to go to week-long camp during the summer. It was your traditional camp experience, with swimming and boating, arts and crafts, campfires, and the like. One of the more unusual activities in which we were engaged was a “trust walk”, when we would be blindfolded and led on a path by a guide (who was NOT blindfolded (can’t have the “blind leading the blind”!) who you trusted would bring you safely through the experience.

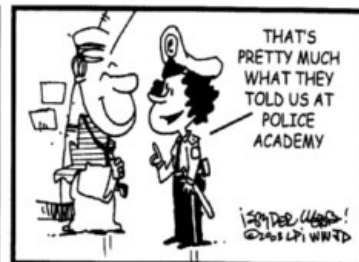

Trust is a key element of faith, something which Jesus exhibits in our gospel reading. As He sends the disciples forth into the world of ministry, Jesus calls them to trust that God would provide for all their needs. They are to bring nothing “extra”, “nothing for the journey but a walking stick—no food, no sack, no money in their belts” (Mark 6:8); they are to trust in the goodness of people along the way. This is a great act of faith – faith in the goodness of people, faith in the goodness of God. Our first reading also features the gift of faith in the person of Amos, the prophet. By his accounting, he is no prophet; he is a shepherd and a horticulturist (a dresser of sycamores). By being asked to take on a prophetic role in God’s plan, Amos is asked to trust God in the plan He has for Amos and the people.

We are called on this day to ask ourselves if we are like the disciples of Jesus, who trust in God’s plan and His ability to care for them “on the road”, or like Amos, who (as a dresser of sycamores) wonders what God might be thinking in calling him to this prophetic role. We come to see that it is perfectly acceptable to have questions about God’s plan for us and to wonder where we are being led, Ultimately, however, we are called to trust that God has our back, our best interest at heart. May we come to believe that God will not let us stumble, not let us fall, and that when we do (by virtue of our distrust) He will pick us up, dust us off, and redirect us on the right path, the path that leads to salvation and eternal life.

Peace and All Good,

Fr. Paul

We have a special guest arriving in July who needs a room to rent for two weeks.

Fr. Peter Francis's niece who is a Neurologist is coming to the states to Work in Cincinnati.

She will be arriving two weeks early to spend time with her uncle.

Does anyone have a spare room to rent to her?

Father Francis would be very grateful.

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

As most folks know, members of the Franciscan Order (like most religious orders) take a vow of poverty. This sacred promise is both constraining and freeing. It is a challenge because the maker of this promise must rely on the goodness of the Order, the goodness of the people who contribute to the well-being of those in the Order, and (ultimately) the goodness of God. In this regard, they aren't much different from the disciples of Jesus as we read in this week's gospel. As they are sent forth to expand the scope of Jesus' mission, they are called to rely on the people to whom they minister for their needs. They are not to bring "extras", but only those things that will help them survive and continue the mission of Jesus.

St. Francis, in his writings regarding the Franciscan Order, instructed his followers to be like the early disciples. They were to not only live this view of poverty, but to embrace it as they would one they love. St. Francis would go so far as to refer to this love as "Lady Poverty". In anthropomorphizing this trait, St. Francis looks upon poverty as something to not only be striven for, but embraced and encouraged. Indeed, poverty was so important to Francis that in his last writing, the Testament, composed shortly before his death in 1226, he declared unambiguously that absolute personal and corporate poverty was the essential lifestyle for the members of his order.

Most in our society not only eschew this vision but run completely from it. Poverty is something to be avoided at all costs (pun intended) and is seen as a negative viewpoint. Any positive aspect of poverty is overshadowed by the negative connotation that it is best left to those who have nothing, need nothing, or want nothing. Poverty, by its nature, is seen not as a virtue but a vice, one which leads to anxiety, depression, and sadness. St. Francis, however, saw poverty as a vehicle which can lead one to a deeper relationship to Christ. It was Christ who came not be served but to serve, and as such lived a life of poverty of sorts, relying on the goodness of others. This vision was carried forth by His disciples, as they were to rely on others for their needs.

May we come to embrace "Lady Poverty" as St. Francis did, coming to see this way of living as something freeing, not constraining, which leads one to a deeper relationship to Christ.

Peace and All Good,

Fr. Paul, OFS

THE 10 COMMANDMENTS

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 You shall have no other gods before Me. | 6 You shall not murder. |
| 2 You shall not make idols. | 7 You shall not commit adultery. |
| 3 You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain. | 8 You shall not steal. |
| 4 Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. | 9 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. |
| 5 Honor your father and your mother. | 10 You shall not covet. |

LifeHopeandTruth.com

Here are some prayers that can be based on the Ten Commandments:

Worship

"I, the Lord, am your God. You shall not have other gods besides me. We pray that God would be worshiped above all else in our land".

Honoring the Lord's name

"You shall not take the name of the Lord, your God, in vain. We pray that the Lord's name will be honored and we ask God to bring a fresh conviction against profanity and depravity".

Sabbath rest

"Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day. We pray that God's people will set an example for this nation by honoring the Lord through a Sabbath rest".

False gods

"Heavenly Father, you are God, and there is no other; you are God, and there is none like you. But we confess that sometimes we follow false gods. We cling to superstitions; we trust in wealth or work or one another to provide for us instead of you; we love ourselves and the things of this world more than you. Forgive us. Help us worship, serve, and honor you with all our hearts".

Gratitude

"Dear God, thank you for the many blessings that we receive each day from your hands. Help us to be grateful and content with the wondrous gifts we have. Keep our eyes fixed upon you, not upon the possessions of other people. Help us not to compare ourselves to other people, but to work to be who you have said we are"

Everyday Stewardship

I recently got into an Uber car for a ride to the airport. I like talking with drivers if I sense they are open to it. On this particular day, the driver was very talkative and told me about how he was an inventor. He had several patents and was about to sell one of his inventions for a ton of money. We had a wonderful conversation, and he was such a warm and interesting person. I asked him why, with his good fortune with inventions and all the work he was doing aside from Uber, he was still driving. He smiled and said, "There are still some people I haven't met yet. I never know who is going to get into my car next."

What an amazing answer! Too often we live our lives in semi-solitude, walking around with blinders on so we don't make eye contact. We have our family and friends, but we don't get up each day wondering with excitement who we will meet that day.

God puts people into our path all the time. Maybe we need them or they need us. But we do not walk through this world alone. If we choose to not be mindful of who is in our midst, we miss the chance to receive whatever gifts they may have to give. In the same vein, they miss out on what we have to share with them if we stay closed and quiet. Pay attention to those around you. God may come to you in the words of a friend, the request of a homeless man, or in the wisdom of an Uber driver.

Our Saint Vincent de Paul Society has provided support for our neighbors that find themselves in need of a little help with utility, fuel or rent bills. There are many ways we can help our neighbors; if not financially, we can help spiritually. The Society cannot help our neighbors without the generosity of our parishioners. Please consider donating by placing the donations in the SDVP boxes located at each entrance. Please make out any checks to St. Vincent de Paul Society, not St. Ann's church.

To Join or get more information on how we can help a neighbor in need, please call Tina Anthony, 508-245-5481

Next meeting: All meetings are suspended for the Summer. See you in the Fall. Enjoy!!!!
