DEACONS' CORNER

LORD GIVE ME FAITH TO SEE BEYOND
WHAT I CAN SEE,

FAITH TO KNOW THAT YOUR WILL DOES
GREAT THINGS AND

GRACE TO TRUST YOU AT ALL TIMES !!!!

FOR AS I HOLD ON TO MY FAITH, JESUS
YOU ARE HOLDING ON TO ME.

My Dear Friends in Christ,

There is an old expression that states that one is to “grow where you are planted”. If one were to “Google” this phrase, they would come up with over sixteen million entries (16.3, to be exact!)! A quick scan of the topic shows that most of them have to do with gardening, giving the best “tips” on how to get the most out of your plants, fruits, and vegetables; some, however, speak on what Jesus is getting at, that for one to grow and flourish in one’s faith, good “soil” is needed.

Jesus explains the parable effectively enough to His disciples (and to those whose ears are open to hearing what He has to say) that it would be foolish for me to “re-invent the wheel”, as it were and try and “top” Jesus. So, where does one go from here? I think if this parable (or any parable, for that matter) is to have any meaning for us, we have to apply it to the “here and now”. In our modern age, we can think that we know all there is to know about “the Evil One”, as Satan is referred to in this passage. That would be a mistake, and a deadly one at that! The challenge with Satan is that he is always “reinventing” himself to suit the present age. The tricks, ruses and guises that he used back in the time of Jesus are not, of course, the same ones He uses today, for He knows that they wouldn’t work on us. The temptations which Satan uses are, in theory, the same; it is the mode and methods he uses which change. Take the internet, for example. The world-wide web can be an effective tool for communication, teaching and learning. The fact that my bulletin column is available online is proof of that! That same form of transmitting knowledge, however, can be used for less-than-noble purposes – thus the dilemma. Do we not use the web? Of course not; for most that would be highly impractical. We would do well to be careful, however, in how we use this tool to its most effective manner. It can be that “good ground” (which bears good fruit), but it can also be that “rocky” or “thorny” soil (which “chokes off” any good which is found in the good seed of faith).

Jesus invites “whoever has ears ought to hear” (Mt 13:9), meaning you and I. May we have open ears, and hearts, to take in the gospel message. May we be that “rich soil” (Mt 13:8), receptive to the Word of God, taking in the “good seed” that is the Word. May we have the courage to share the Good News with all whom we meet!

Have a “Fruitful” Week,

Fr. Paul

The liturgical color for Ordinary Time is green. Green is meant to symbolize hope, to be a symbol of life. Several things are possible to take advantage of this seasonal color. We can imagine taking a green plant that we already have, or getting one, and placing it, or a cutting from it, in a prominent place in our house to say that we are going to be hopeful in God's love for us. God's love, like the life flowing through this plant, is faithful. When we look at the plant, we can be conscious of an inner desire - perhaps expressed in a verbal prayer - that God give us hope and trust. And, when we water the plant, or perhaps give it plant food, we are nourishing this life, as God nourishes us. A simple symbol, but it can be a very ordinary time gift for us.

Other basic symbols can be drawn from where we are and what is common and ordinary in our region. I might, for example, be near the sea or a lake. I could gather some beautiful shells and put them in a simple bowl as a sign of the life around me. I might be in a more arid or even desert area and a number of stones or a small amount of sand could be placed in a bowl to be a sign for me of the earth and God's care for us in this area. I might be in a rural area, and have the opportunity to bring some flowers from a garden or simple wild flowers from a nearby field.

Whatever we gather and intentionally let be a symbol by assigning it some meaning, we open a door for God's grace to bless us. In general, the themes we might consider to find symbols for are about the journey we are on. We are counting time, week by week, listening to God's word and growing in our relationship with God. This is not a season of "nothing going on." It is a time which we can symbolize growth, movement, process, life.

During Ordinary Time, we can do something as simple as taking something we always do each day and doing it in a symbolic way. For example, we might be in the practice of putting our keys on a table when we come in the house. We might be in the habit of putting our mobile phone on the table as well. During Ordinary Time, we could get a simple bowl or plate and put our keys or phone on that bowl or plate. We could perhaps find a simple green cloth to put in the bowl or on the plate. It can be the symbol of our commitment to be faithful to the journey of these days, and to place our trust in our faithful God. We can even offer a simple prayer, like, "Lord, these keys represent (this phone is a symbol of) so much of the commitments I have made and the places you have called me to be and where you have called me to serve. Let my placing them in the bowl all during this season give me a sense of taking up this mission you have given me, with hope in you."

EVERY MONTH IS "NATIONAL SOCIAL SECURITY ONLINE" MONTH

Have you ever stopped to appreciate the many celebrations we enjoy in this country? For example, did you know that July is National Baked Beans Month? It's also National Hot Dog Month. If beans and hot dogs are not on your diet, that's okay--it's also National Blueberry Month!

July also happens to be National Ice Cream Month--something almost as American as apple pie (National Apple Pie Month was in May).

As you're marking your calendar to keep all of these festivities in mind, we want to make sure you're aware that every month can be National Social Security Online Month!

As you're taking all of these commemorative foods out on a picnic (July is also National Picnic Month), take your laptop or tablet with you so you can visit www.socialsecurity.gov.

Whether you want to see what's new at Social Security with our news section, find an answer to a question with our frequently asked questions section, or plan for your retirement with our "Retirement Estimator" or "Benefits Planners," you can do it all easily at our Web site.

Make www.socialsecurity.gov a part of your recreation (July is National Recreation Month). Visit our History page to learn all about the history and early days of Social Security. Resting on a blanket under a tree is a fun way to spend a picnic, but if that begins to get boring (July is National Anti-Boredom Month), you'll want to tune into some of our fun public service announcements featuring Patty Duke, George Takei, Chubby Checker, and Don Francisco at www.socialsecurity.gov/pressoffice/psa-video.html.

If you're feeling ambitious and ready to retire, you may even decide to apply online for benefits as you're enjoying your baked beans and ice cream. You can apply easily in as little as 15 minutes. Patty Duke and George Takei will tell you all about it in the online videos. Con't...

The Increased Offertory Campaign:

FINAL ANNOUNCEMENT

As the initial phase of the Increased Offertory Campaign comes to a close, I would like to take this opportunity to once again thank all of you that made it a success. We have realized a 23% increase in our regular giving and I am confident that, as faithful stewards, we will sustain this generosity to the parish.

Over the next year, I promise to keep you informed on how we are doing as a parish in meeting the commitments that have been made.

And Going forward, I look forward to incorporating this new way of giving into our annual budgeting process.

Please know how grateful I am at the response of St. John Parish.

The Women's Pray Shawl Ministry will not be meeting during the Summer but will resume their ministry in September. Any questions, please contact Mary Ann Boyle!

If you go to our home page, you'll find our most popular services listed on the left-hand side of the page. These include getting or replacing a Social Security card, applying for retirement or disability benefits, applying for Medicare, and getting "Extra Help" with Medicare prescription drug costs. There is so much you can do at Social Security's Web site you may find yourself celebrating National Social Security Online Month throughout the year.
