NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

The gift of hospitality is a multi-layered one. On one level, there is the act of opening up one's home to family, friends, or strangers (who are usually acquainted with those aforementioned family or friends). On another level, hospitality usually means offering food and/or drink to anyone who comes in. In any event, there is a "burden" put upon the host/ hostess when one opens up one's home.

In today's first reading, Abraham has come upon him three strangers. Immediately, Abraham offers them all the comforts of home: water, rest, and food. In offering hospitality, Abraham (along with his wife, Sarah) is rewarded with the promise that by that time next year, Abraham and Sarah will be gifted with a son (and they are, their son Isaiah). Hospitality, in this case, has the reward of new life for Abraham and Sarah.

In our gospel passage, Martha and Mary welcome Jesus into their home. In this short, but powerful passage, there is a distinct difference in how Martha and Mary act during Jesus' time with them. Martha is the more "active" of the two, but Mary isn't exactly sitting around doing nothing (despite Martha's protestations to the contrary). Mary has, in fact, "chosen the better part" (Lk 10:42) according to Jesus. This admonition by Jesus isn't meant as a rebuke (although some may take it as such) inasmuch as it is a recognition of the importance of the "ministry of presence" in which Mary finds herself engaged. One of my favorite (and one of the most important) things that I do when I'm in front of the Blessed Sacrament (either in church or in my "home chapel") is to just "be"...to be in the presence of the Lord, not saying or doing anything, but just "being" in God's presence. Mary's gift of being "present" to the Lord isn't unnoticed and is recognized as that "better part" (ibid); what Martha is doing is important, but Mary's attentiveness to Jesus is more important at this moment.

How do we show hospitality to one another? Are we so busy doing that we forget that sometimes just being is enough of a gift, often times the best gift of all. May we have the courage to listen to that voice of God that says, "Be still and know that I am God" (Ps 46:10). May we respond to that voice by just being present to one another. May God bless our faithfulness in this "ministry of presence", and may He reward us with those things that help us to grow in faith, hope, and love.

A Blessed Week to All,

Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

Today's readings speak of "service"... service to the stranger, service to our brothers and sisters, service to Christ. St. Francis lived a radical life of service after his conversion. Francis was ordained as a Deacon. (never a priest). And he LIVED his Diaconate in every sense of the work Diakonos...

service. Francis lived a life of radical hospitality. He welcomed all, strangers, Muslim, Christian, woman, child, etc as Christ. Ever since his encounter with the poor beggar man, wherein Francis gave him his cloak, Francis lived a life for others. He lived his life as an alter Christus (another Christ).

Francis had a great love for the Church, he had a great love for the people of God, a great love for the Liturgy in all its splendor, and he had a great love for beauty. Francis lived the radical hospitality, which the Gospel demands with such fervor that he saw God's presence in the beauty of each part of Creation. Whether it be Sister Moon, Brother Wolf, Sister Breeze, Brother Leo, Sister Clare, or even Sister Death...from whom no mortal can escape. Francis saw the presence of God, the incarnation of Christ in every living being. He lived the mystery of the Incarnation, because he honored Christ's presence, wherever and whenever he found it.

Francis was joyful. There's no doubting that. Read any commentary you ever could on him, watch Bishop Robert Barron's The Pivotal Players episode on him (I HIGHLY RECOMMEND DOING SO) and you will see a man, faced with trials, with sin, with struggles, yet as he walked he sang. As he received he gave. As he lived, so he loved. Francis abandoned the pleasures of the flesh, the pleasures of the world, because he had seen that only Christ could provide what he needed. He had fallen deeply and madly in love with the Bridegroom of the Church, and sought to offer his own life with Christ to the glory of God the Father. Francis embraced his trials. He received the Stigmata. He founded religious communities. He created the first "living" Nativity Scene. He rebuilt physical church buildings. He prayed often. He went away to quiet places for retreats. He stirred up the ardor of faith in men of no faith. He loved without being loved in return. Why? Because he embraced the Radical Hospitality of the Gospel. He embraced a life of joy. He embraced Christ, present in all of humanity and creation, with all of its boils, warts, pimples, scars, etc. because he saw the beauty of the Creator within.

St. Francis of Assisi lived a life of radical surrender to the workings of the Spirit. He lived a life of radical hospitality and love. He lived a life of joy as he embraced the cross. May we have the strength and courage to do the same.

Pax et Bonum,
Fr. Paul, OFS

Two $5,000 donations were made to St. John's. Thank you for your generosity.

St Ann's Rectory also has mice and will need an exterminator. Thank you to the parishioner who donated $500 for this specific issue. We can now call an exterminator.

Some of the extra bills that we have incurred lately are:

Lift Inspection for the State — $1800 — St John's
Replacing the lights at St. John — $1600
Fire Alarm and Fire Extinguisher Inspections for both Churches — $1600
Parking Lot patch for St. Ann's — $1600— Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for taking care of this bill.

As you can see, finances at both churches are beginning to improve thanks to the your generosity.

As bills get paid, I will make every effort to inform you.

We truly appreciate all the help you have given and hope that you continue to help to improve our situation.

Fr. always says that your time, talents and tithings help keep the parish going.

Some of the time and talents that have been donated over the past years are:

Paul Allen and Joe Moriarty have volunteered their time and talent making sure the grass has been mowed at the churches.

Janet DiFalco, Alice Hooper, Mary Langer, & Nancy Weljkovic have educated themselves on how to melt down old Easter candles or the left over altar candles to fill the Sanctuary Candle Bottles. A big savings.

The rectory at St. Ann's has no cleaning service and the staff takes care of some of it as best they can, as well as purchasing items needed when money is tight ie. Paper, paper towels, cleaning items, stamps etc.

Planting the flowers around the church at St. Johns has been volunteers led by Janet DiFalco. Father Francis keeps the prayer garden at St. Ann's full of beautiful flowers.

Volunteers help on Monday night making sandwiches for the homeless. Watch Matthew's column for the dates .

If you have the time or talent to help in any way, please let us know.

The Pantry is a little low—needed: any food, especially tuna, peanut butter, soups, pasta & pasta sauce, cereal, toothpaste, tooth brushes, toilet paper.

Gift cards are also a great help. $5 — $25 cards are easier to distribute than large sums., ie $100

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

As I get older, what really matters to me changes. I remember being in high school and having to wear certain brands and to look a certain way. Now, many days I simply wear what is clean! I used to collect certain things that I no longer seem to care about much now. I wanted certain things for my children, and now I am happy if they are happy, regardless of what happens. I have changed political stances a few times. I even follow different sports teams today than I did when I was younger. Time, circumstance, wisdom, and even disillusionment all play a part in my ever-changing attitude toward what really matters in life.

All has changed except my faith. My faith is the one constant in my life. It is the most precious of all the gifts God has given to me. Life hasn't been a constant high, and there have been several low valleys along the way. It has been my faith that has seen me through all times, good and bad. If anything has changed, it is that Jesus matters more today than he did yesterday.

What really matters to you? What's the main thing in your life? I have witnessed once-strong disciples place politics, wealth, career, and family ahead of Jesus over time. All those things are enticing, but they are things that change. Even your family grows and changes as the years go by, as does your relationship with them. The one thing that does not change is God. God is the same yesterday, today, and forever. It can bring great peace to your life when what matters to you is the one thing that remains constant. The main thing is to keep the main thing, the main thing. That main thing is Jesus.
