NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

The “Our Father” is one of the most, if not THE most, central prayer in the Catholic-Christian faith. It is the only “formal” prayer taught to the Twelve by Jesus. Jesus gave them this prayer after being requested by the Apostles for a way to pray; they had known of/experienced John’s disciples praying and that John had given them “formulas” to pray. The prayer which Jesus gives them is a perfect blend of adoration, petition and thanksgiving – it has all of the elements of a great prayer. The “version” given in Luke’s gospel is somewhat truncated, but it gets the point across that the sentiment and power of the full prayer (which we offer in our liturgy).

The other benefit of having prayers like the “Our Father” is that they give us words to put to the feelings which we experience which we would have a hard time otherwise expressing. When words fail us, prayers such as the “Our Father” give us the opportunity to put forth our inmost desires and thoughts. The beautiful thing about using the “Our Father” in our liturgy is that we realize that, when we pray in community, that we are not alone in our need for God or our desire to receive those things from God which will help us to grow in faith, hope and love.

Jesus further elaborates on this prayer by extolling the virtue of being persistent in prayer. This is not to say that if we ask often enough, we will get what we want. I remember as a child asking (on long car trips), ad nauseam, “are we there yet?”; it was if had I asked often enough that the answer would change. The only thing that changed was my mother’s level of patience, decreasing with each petition! I think what Jesus is getting at in the gospel passage for today is that each time we ask for something and are told “no”, then we have the opportunity to “nuance” our request and think about what we truly need (and not just what we want). If we “ask... seek... knock” (Lk 11:9), then we will “receive... find... be opened” (Lk 11:10). These are persistent actions with concrete results; they are opportunities to grow in faith, hope and love.

May we have the courage and patience to be persistent in prayer. May we be focused in our prayers so that we may ask for those things which we need, not just what we want. May we always know in our heart that God hears our prayers, gives us what we need and helps us to grow in faith, hope and love.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

St Francis' Prayer Inspired By The Our Father

O our most Holy Father: Our Creator, Redeemer, Consoler, and Savior,

You are in heaven: And in the angels and saints, Inflaming us to love, because You, Lord, are love, And filling us with happiness as our Supreme and Eternal Good. Glorious is Your name:

May our knowledge of You become ever clearer That we may know Your blessings and Your majesty. Your Kingdom come:

Give us unclouded vision to let you rule in us through Your grace, And so we enjoy a blessed companionship with You forever.

Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven: That we may love You with our whole heart, Desire You with our whole soul, Always think of You with affection, Spend all our energies in serving You, And that we may love our neighbors with Your love.

Give us this day our daily Bread: Which is our Beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

And forgive us our trespasses: Through Your indescribable mercy to us in Christ, Which we see in the faith and prayers of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Help us to forgive those who trespass against us: You, Lord, enable us to forgive to the full So that we may truly love our enemies and intercede for them.

Lead us not into temptation: Keep us from all sin, hidden or obvious.

Deliver us from evil: Keep us from all that's bad in the past, present, and to come.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, As it was in the beginning, it is now, and will be forever.

Amen.

Replacing the lights at St. John — has been partially paid
Fire Alarm and Fire Extinguisher Inspections for both Churches — has been paid
Parking Lot patch for St. Ann's — $1600— Thank you to the Knights of Columbus for taking care of this bill.
Extermination Bill for St. Ann's to be determined.

As you can see, finances at both churches are beginning to improve thanks to your generosity.

As bills get paid, I will make every effort to inform you.

We truly appreciate all the help you have given and hope that you continue to help to improve our situation.

Fr. always says that your time, talents and tithings help keep the parish going.

Some of the time and talents that have been donated over the past years are:

Paul Allen and Joe Moriarty have volunteered their time and talent making sure the grass has been mowed at the churches.

Janet DiFalco, Alice Hooper, Mary Langer, & Nancy Weljkovic have educated themselves on how to melt down old Easter candles or the left over altar candles to fill the Sanctuary Candle Bottles. A big savings.

Maureen & Kristen Masfield, Lisa Ames, Nancy Malone, & Connie Fiorentino clean St. Ann's.

The rectory at St. Ann's has no cleaning service and the staff takes care of some of it as best they can, as well as purchasing items needed when money is tight ie. Paper, paper towels, cleaning items, stamps etc.

Planting the flowers around the church at St. Johns has been volunteers led by Janet DiFalco. Father Francis keeps the prayer garden at St. Ann's full of beautiful flowers.

Volunteers help on Monday night making sandwiches for the homeless. Watch Matthew's column for the dates .

If you have the time or talent to help in any way, please let us know.

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

BENEATH THE SURFACE

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini reflection: Whatever is interrupting communication between your heart and the One who crafted it, it can be overcome. There is no door thick enough, no night dark enough, no sleep strong enough.

Ask and You Shall Receive

It's easy to look at today's Gospel reading and come away with a view of God as disinterested and irritated, reluctant to give us what we need unless we bang down his door, hound him to the furthest reaches of heaven, wrench him from his reverie and force him to answer just so we'll finally go away.

Well, that's not what Jesus means by the parable of the friend at midnight — but it's also not surprising that we would think that it is. The whole point of this Gospel is that communication between God and man has been broken. It's not as easy as it once was, as it should be, as it could be.

In this parable, there exists many barriers between the supplicant and his friend. The time of day is not ideal. The door is locked. Their dispositions are opposite — one is in the middle of a REM cycle and the other is deeply agitated. They appear to be two people who are not primed to communicate well. Everything is working against them.

The same could well be said of God and the human race. Here we are in a fallen world, surrounded by sin and pain and sickness and death to the extent that it infiltrates not just our bodies but our souls, our minds, our attitudes.

We are the friend caught unprepared in the dead of night. We don't always know how to talk to God (That door is thick! Will he hear us if we knock?). We don't always know if we should (It's all my fault that I ran out of loaves, after all). We don't even know if we want to (It's nighttime! He might be angry!).

Everything is working against us.

It doesn't matter, Jesus tells us. Whatever is interrupting communication between your heart and the One who crafted it, the One
