NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

As the story is told, a Baptist minister passes away and enters into the Kingdom. As he's being shown around, St. Peter is showing him the different "rooms" in Heaven. As they pass one room, the minister is informed that this is the "Baptist room"; as they go down the hall, the minister is shown the "Lutheran hall", the "Methodist hall", etc. As they pass by one room, St. Peter asks the minister to be quiet; when the minister asks why, St. Peter informs him that "this is the Catholic room – they think that they're the only ones up here!" I tell that story not to disparage the Catholic faith, but to illustrate a point.

I've always felt, as the song goes, that "there's wideness in God's mercy". Today's gospel reminds us that it takes more than "lip service" to be a Christian. It further reminds us that we might be surprised both who's in the Kingdom and who's not. We must not only know about God, we must know God. This comes from prayer, study and relationship. Our prayer draws us closer to God; our study helps us to understand our faith; our relationship with God helps us grow closer in relationship to one another.

There is no doubt that to enter into the Kingdom means entering through the "narrow gate" (Lk 13:24). This idea applies not only to our life after this world, but also our life in this world. To be a Christian means to enter into a focused way of living, sometimes shutting out or disposing of those things that are not of God. It could be a wrong attitude, an incorrect way of living or a bad relationship. In each of these cases, we must decide what matters most to us. Ultimately, we stand before the judgment seat of Christ answering for our life's decisions. At that time, it won't matter how many times we have uttered the Lord's name – all that will matter is whether we put the Lord first, above all things. God's mercy is, indeed, wide, but narrow is the way to the Kingdom. Let us prepare right here and now for that time, so that God may welcome us into His Kingdom of Love.

Have a Blessed Week,

Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

"For behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last." (Luke 13:30). In this last line of today's gospel, Jesus reminds us that it may surprise us as to whom we find in the Kingdom...presuming we get there ourselves! My mother used to say that "If we are blessed to get into the Kingdom, to be "on the correct side of the gates", we may be surprised as to who we see – and don't see – there!" It was her reminder to us that we cannot presume that just because we pray, we call upon the Lord, we feel that we are in right relationship with God that we have any guarantee of seeing eternity in Heaven. In other words, we cannot just "pay 'lip service'" to the Lord. We must be people of words AND deeds, prayer AND action.

This idea of prayer and action is not a new one. It is highlighted by St. Clare of Assisi's words: "Let the love you have in your hearts be shown outwardly in your deeds" ("Testament of St. Clare"). It's about showing up. Woody Allen once quipped that "90% of life is just showing up". St. Clare showed up. St. Clare was known for showing up. She often took care of her sisters—or the friars—who were ill. In fact, she cared for Francis near the end of his life. One story is that Clare used to wash the feet of her sisters after they would come in from doing chores. On this particular day, as she finished washing the feet of one of her fellow sisters, Clare bent over to kiss her foot. Out of humility, the sister pulled her foot back, striking Clare in the mouth. Rather than recoil in pain, Clare simply proceeded to kiss the sister's foot. Even when Clare was sick and in bed, she ministered to others as she was able. During those days, she would use the time to sew altar cloths for surrounding churches. Ministry in action—that was Clare's default. It should be ours as well.

This past week, I had the opportunity to exercise that charism. I spent the week at "E.C. ("Exceptional Citizens") Week". It is a traditional week of camp, full of nature walks, waterfront activities, boating and swimming, campfires, and the like. Our motto at Camp is "Love in Action", something of which St. Clare - and, no doubt, St. Francis - would approve. They were people of love AND action, as well as love IN action. They lived their faith in word and deed...and we should, as well!

Pax et Bonum,

Fr. Paul, OFS

A LOOK INTO WHAT WE ARE FACING WITH A 35% DROP IN WEEKLY GIVING.

St. Ann — Offertory 8-03-25	— $2,176
Second Collection	$ 793
Sacramental Donations + Misc.	$1,898
Total	$4,867

St John — Offertory 8-03-25	— $2,338
Second Collection	$ 429
Sacramental Donations + Misc.	$1,647
Total	$3,788

As you can see, finances at both churches are beginning to improve thanks to your generosity and we are hoping that when the folks return after summer, things will get even better.

If you have the time or talent to help in any way, please let us know. If you have any wishes for different activities or ministries, please let us know.

If anyone in the parishes has the ability to paint the white areas, (not the steeples) of St. John's, help is truly needed.

We raised between both churches a total of $2,578 for Fr. John's Water Project. He extends his sincerest thank you to all who helped in this project progression.

We are hoping to form a Uganda Committee that would be on-going throughout the year with the ultimate purpose of coming up with creative ideas to help raise money for these worthy projects; Like Raffles, bake sales, candy sales etc. We need helpers to brainstorm ideas and then to help occasionally with the activities. This way the burden of helping Fr. John and Fr. Stephen would not be concentrated in just the summer and with collections.

Please call the offices if you are interested in helping. Or you can reach out at mass when you see anyone of us. Bring a friend. The more the merrier.

The Barbeque raised $370 and everyone who attended said they had a great time. Next year we hope more people will be able to attend. Thank you to Matt and his team of helpers, as well as, the Hospitality Team.
