The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 Blessed are those who mourn; for they shall be comforted.
 Blessed are the meek; for they shall possess the earth.
 Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for justice; for they shall obtain mercy.
 Blessed are the clean of heart; for they shall see God.
 Blessed are the peacemakers; for they shall be called children of God.
 Blessed are they who suffer persecution for justice's sake; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 Blessed are you when men reproach you, and persecute you, and speaking falsely, all manner of evil against you, for My sake.

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Today's gospel offers us three parables. Parables were story-telling "tools" that the speaker used to convey a greater point. While Jesus was not alone in using parables, He certainly is known for using them, relating these images to greater realities such as salvation and the Kingdom of God. In today's gospel, Jesus is speaking of the "sin and repentance" aspect of our faith by speaking of "The Lost Sheep", "The Lost Coin" and "The Prodigal Son". The first two parables "set up" the third, which brings the point home.

The story of the "Prodigal Son" can be looked at in many different ways. While we tend to look at the "wayward" son as the center of the story, we can also take the tale from the perspective of the father or even of the second ("faithful") son. Depending where we are on our journey of faith, we may be able to relate to any one of these three characters. Some may focus on the "prodigal son", insofar as his journey from sin to forgiveness. The prodigal son gives us a vivid picture not only of the perils of sin, but also the power of forgiving love. The prodigal son, coming to his senses and realizing the error of his ways, goes to the father not expecting anything more than to be treated like a hired hand. The treatment he receives "mirrors" the treatment we receive from God when, with contrite hearts, we approach God seeking – and receiving! – forgiveness. It is a riveting image of the power of God's forgiving love.

We can also look at this story from the perspective of the father. Perhaps in our life there is someone who has "wronged" us, and they approach seeking forgiveness. The father in today's story is a model for us, a way of approaching that encounter. We can hold back that forgiveness, "lording over" the offending party the transgression committed; this is not, however, how God wishes us to act. The father in today's gospel shows us that "to err is human, to forgive, divine". When we forgive, we bring God's grace into the moment, raising it up so that God may bless BOTH parties, healing the wounds of sin and division.

Finally, we can look at the story from the viewpoint of the son. Perhaps we have been faithful to God's teaching, yet we don't feel that we have been given our "due" (i.e. the "young goat" that the "faithful" son feels that he deserves). We might become resentful when we see others who have transgressed getting "rewarded" (i.e., the Prodigal Son), forgetting that God sees all and will deal with them accordingly (probably affording them far more mercy than we would!). We should come to realize that God will deal with us – in His own time and His own way - for "we all must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil" (2 Cor 5:10). It has been said that "whoever brings a sinner back from the error of his way will save his soul from death and cover a multitude of sins" (Jas 5:20). May we have the courage to seek out the "lost" and bring them back into God's good grace by inviting them back into relationship with God. May we know the grace God has waiting for us and may we share that grace with all whom we meet.

Have a Blessed Week,
 Fr. Paul

Dear Parishioners of St. John and St. Ann's, peace.

I am Fr. Stephen Lusiba from Uganda. You know me well and as I told you, this parish is now a home away from home. I thank so much Fr. Paul, the pastor, for what he is in my life and mission. I am happy to be back.

I bring you greetings and thanx from St Benedict high school, Uganda. Thank you for the donation you gave us last year. We managed to do the roofing as you can see the building in the picture.

Our challenge now is to do the closing, plastering and painting. This will cost us $22,000.00. I request for individual donation towards this genuine cause.

How to donate? Write your check in the names of St. John's or St. Ann's. In the memo write St. Benedict school, Uganda. We shall also have a second collection for this cause on the weekend of September 28/29.

Thanx so much and many blessings.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENT

Patience in All Things

St. Francis De Sales said, “Have patience with all things, but, first of all with yourself.” Life has a way of knocking us down or off the path we are traveling. If it is a path that God has called us to, then it will be easier to get back to the journey, but nevertheless, it is difficult. The hardest thing to bear is that too often what we blame on life is really about our own choices or shortcomings. The refrain of many a blues singer sounds something like, “Nobody to blame but me!”

What is the Good News? God's patience is far superior to our own. We do need to follow the words above and cultivate in ourselves a greater sense of patience in all things. However, we should take great comfort in knowing that God's patience will always be there as we struggle to grow and advance in our life as a disciple.

You're trying to live a stewardship way of life but keep falling onto the side of the road? God wants you to reach Him on the road but will wait for you. You want to be holier and more committed to your faith? God will take what you give Him. The danger is when you lose your patience and stop moving toward Him. You decide that it doesn't really matter and that what you can offer God doesn't amount to anything of worth. We must never cease our journey. You and I may get fed up, but our God never will.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

A message from Carmen Pearson, Coordinator of the Parish Picnic:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who helped make our parish picnic a success. Donations were received from Roache Bros., Stop & Shop, Trucchi's and Lipinski's Farm. To Bill Dowling for use of his grill and to Lisa and Jim Motos for transporting the grill, to Loretta Connelly for obtaining the ice, all the grillers and to all those who helped in preparing and serving the foods. John Tibbetts for the music enjoyed by all, Charleen Tibbetts who ran the 50/50 raffle, and the many donations of the delicious desserts. And to the Madigan family who did the tent and table setup and take down.

The picnic was enjoyed by all because so many people helped make it happen—from ticket sales to cleanup.
