NOTES FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Today we find ourselves in the “home stretch” of Advent. Christmas is in just a couple of days, and we take these “final days” (presuming the “street corner prophets” are wrong about the “final days”!) to reflect on this four week journey that we have undertaken. Our readings beautifully link the themes on which we have been contemplating and praying during our Advent Season, namely “promise”, “joy”, “repentance” and “transformation”.

In our first reading, the prophet Micah gives assurance to the Jews that God is faithful to His promises and that God will bring to prominence the “unimportant” village of Bethlehem. In doing this, God (through the prophet Micah) shows to us that no one, and nothing that one does, is insignificant. In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that Jesus, in doing the will of the Father, shows us that through sacrifice and obedience we draw ourselves closer into the mystery of God. In our gospel, we have the encounter of two seemingly “insignificant” women highlighting the fact that nothing that we do in the name of God is ever insignificant. Mary and Elizabeth are powerful models of faith and faithfulness to us all, and their individual “fiats” (saying “yes” to God’s plan) are a reflection of the “yes” that we are called to give to God.

Advent has been, I hope and pray, a time when we prepare our minds, hearts and lives for the coming of Christ. Over the last four weeks this time of preparation has been, please God, not an insignificant journey in which we have been transformed by God’s grace and love. As we stand on the threshold of Christmas (both the Day and the Season), may we use these final days not just to “make a list and check it twice”, but also to continue to reflect on the goodness of God. As we approach the Christmas miracle of the Virgin Birth, may we come to see that Christ is already a part of our lives, even as we prepare to welcome Him once again. May this upcoming Christmas Day (and Season) be a time of prosperity, hope and joy. May we come to see the Christ Child as the One who comes into the world to set us free, so that when He comes in glory, He may find us watching, waiting and knowing that He is Emmanuel....”God With Us”!

A Blessed Advent to All,

Fr. Paul

MY FRANCISCAN JOURNEY

In today's gospel, Mary has a beautiful encounter with her kinswoman Elizabeth. When Mary arrives at Elizabeth's home, the child within the womb of Elizabeth (who we know to be John the Baptist) leaps at the sound of Mary's voice. To me, this speaks volumes about both John (who recognizes the voice of the Mother of God) and Mary (who is carrying the Messiah). Elizabeth then joins in by acknowledging Mary as the "Theotokos", the "God Bearer". It is a powerful testament of faith for all. It also brings into the forefront the role of Mary in salvation history. For the Franciscan community, it also brings into bearing the place that Mary has in the Franciscan ethos.

According to a pious legend, one day St. Francis of Assisi had a vision in which he saw his friars trying to reach Christ by a ladder that was red and very steep. After climbing a few rungs, they would suddenly fall back. Our Lord then showed St. Francis another ladder, white and much less steep, at whose summit appeared the Blessed Virgin, and He said to Francis: "Advise your sons to go by the ladder of My Mother." Among those devotions rich in Franciscan tradition is the devotion to the Virgin Mother of God. St. Francis of Assisi was among the greatest Marian devotees in the history of the Church and, according to the Second Vita of Thomas of Celano, had a love for her that was beyond words. "Inexpressible," he writes of Francis' love for the Blessed Virgin, "for it was she who made the Lord of majesty our brother." St. Francis chose her as the patroness and Queen of the Friars Minor and exhorted his friars to always possess a true and living devotion to the Mother of God. This loving devotion is imbued in his famous "Salutation to the Blessed Virgin Mary":

HAIL, O LADY, HOLY QUEEN,
 MARY, HOLY MOTHER OF GOD:
 YOU ARE THE VIRGIN MADE CHURCH
 AND THE ONE CHOSEN BY THE MOST HOLY FATHER IN HEAVEN
 WHOM HE CONSECRATED WITH HIS MOST HOLY BELOVED SON
 AND WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT THE PARACLETE, IN WHOM THERE WAS AND IS
 ALL THE FULLNESS OF GRACE AND EVERY GOOD.
 HAIL, HIS PALACE!
 HAIL, HIS TABERNACLE!
 HAIL, HIS HOME!
 HAIL, HIS ROBE!
 HAIL, HIS SERVANT!
 HAIL, HIS MOTHER!
 AND, HAIL ALL YOU HOLY VIRTUES
 WHICH THROUGH THE GRACE AND LIGHT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT
 ARE POURED INTO THE HEARTS OF THE FAITHFUL
 SO THAT FROM THEIR FAITHLESS STATE
 YOU MAY MAKE THEM FAITHFUL TO GOD

As we approach Christmas Day (and the Season of Christmas) let us turn to Our Mother to draw us ever closer to her Son and His gospel message of love.

Pax et Bonum,
 Fr. Paul, OFS

The Hidden Truth

If you have ever been visibly pregnant, chances are that someone, somewhere, whom you do not know, has reached out to touch your stomach.

I've had this happen to me, and sure, it's a little strange. Generally, I prefer people to ask before they touch me. But it's also very sweet, this great mystical excitement inspired by a pregnant belly. We know that belly is special. We know enclosed within it is hope and potential — the very future of our world. Hidden, but real. How can we help but venerate it?

It's why the pregnant Madonna is my favorite devotional image. I even prefer it over the depictions of the Madonna and Child because I find in the sight of Mary's swollen belly more to meditate upon than I find in the unveiled face of the Christ Child. Salvation and redemption, enclosed in flesh, moving, and growing and breathing, but I cannot see it. It's real and it's true and it's there. And it is hidden.

There is much about God that we know with certainty. But there is so much that remains beyond our sight, beyond our comprehension. Questions of evil and sorrow. Pain and tragedy. Life and death. Why don't we have all the answers? We grow very impatient about this. We're like teenagers who want to be trusted with all the family secrets. We hate feeling left out of the loop.

But truth, like life, does not come to us showing its face. Perhaps this is because we could not bear its terrible beauty. Perhaps it's because we would not recognize it if it was laid bare for us to see.

But it's there, right in front of us. We can reach out and touch it. We may not see it. We may not understand it. But we can know it.

Christmas Gifts

Question:

Why do we give gifts at Christmas?

Answer:

Great events in and of themselves are not tangible. They occur in life but leave no mark behind, nothing that someone could come across and know that something significant occurred. So we mark the event with monuments, holidays, gold watches or plaques, making a meaningful event tangible and memorable.

Gifts at Christmas do the same thing. They mark the occasion of the birth of Jesus, communicating a bit of the joy of the day by allowing us to be both giver and receiver. Gift-giving sets aside the day as special and different. The special foods, customs, decorations, and gifts all help focus our attention on the importance and meaning of the day and at the same time allow us to share personally in its joy and happiness.

In giving gifts, though, we can share in the meaning of Christmas in a significant way. We imitate God in sharing with others. We give a bit of ourselves to others in the gifts we give, just as God gives us the gift of his Son. No wonder we often say that the best gifts are those that come from the heart. Given in love, these presents are wrapped in the best covering of all.
